U.N. Seen Rejecting Red Claim

Expected To Adopt Rival Latin Plan On Cuban Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly is expected to reject a demand by the Soviet Union that it condemn the United States as an aggressor masterminding the invasion of Cuba.

The assembly instead is believed certain to adopt a rival proposal by seven Latin-American nations appealing to all U.N. members to refrain from any action that might aggravate existing tensions.

The Soviet proposal, introduced Tuesday night by Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin after a new assault on the United States in the assembly's 99-nation political committee, calls for cessation of all assistance to the forces invading Cuba and urges U.N. members to give aid to Fidel Castro.

The Latin-American resolution was expected to win wide support from member states openly concerned over President Kennedy's warning to Soviet Premier Khrushchev that the United States would take action if the Soviets intervene militarily in Cuba.

Kennedy's warning was read to the committee by chief U.S. delegate Adlai E. Stevenson, who delivered a blistering attack on the Castro government and rejected its charges against the United States.

Stevenson declared that Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa had not presented one shred of evidence to support his claims that the invasion Monday had been launched from Florida. Stevenson said Roa and the Soviet bloc representatives had reached a new low in trying to smear the United States with every innuendo and epithet in the book.

He called for a settlement of the Cuban situation by Cubans themselves and denied that the United States had played a role in the invasion.

Kennedy Warns Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy has fired a straight from the shoulder warning to Soviet Premier Khrushchev to keep hands off Cuba.

Kennedy made it clear in a message to the Soviet leader Tuesday night that the United States will take immediate steps to counter any military intervention by outside force in the Cuban fighting.

The President declared moral support for the "Cuban patriots in their struggle for freedom" and said again that the United States intends no military intervention.

As Kremlin reaction to Kennedy's message was awaited, officials here reported no evidence of any military follow-up by Khrushchev to his threat to supply "all necessary assistance" to Cuba's pro-Communist Fidel Castro regime.

Khrushchev's threat to aid Castro came early Tuesday in a message to the White House.

In tit-for-tat on Moscow's publishing Khrushchev's note before it reached Kennedy, the White House made public Kennedy's answer at the same time Tuesday night that Secretary of State Dean Rusk gave it to Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

Authoritative sources said Kennedy personally devoted much time to wording his reply and conferring with advisers.

The result was a comparatively short—500 word—message sheared of usual diplomatic verbiage and using stronger terms than the restrained language Kennedy has used so far in his effort to get along with the Soviets.

Kennedy told Khrushchev:

1. The United States morally supports and will not hinder "Cuban patriots" in "their struggle for freedom" against the Castro government.

2. While the United States "intends no military intervention in Cuba, in the event of any military intervention by outside force we will immediately honor our obligations under the inter-American system to protect this hemisphere against external aggression."

Kennedy referred, as had President Eisenhower in a similar warning to Khrushchev last summer, to the commitments by the American republics under the Rio de Janeiro Pact to act together against any move by an outside power endangering peace in the hemisphere.

3. Rather than using the Cuban situation as a pretext "to inflame other areas of the world," Moscow should join in present opportunities for peace in Laos and the Congo and for agreeing to a ban on atomic tests.

4. Contrary to Khrushchev's claim that communism is the inevitable wave of the future, "the great revolution in the history of man, past, present and future, is the revolution of those determined to be free."

"What your government believes is its own business," Kennedy said. "What it does in the world is the world's business."

Kennedy's note made no mention of the rock-throwing demonstrators who broke windows of the American Embassy in Moscow Thursday.

Washington officials said the embassy had authority to protest on the spot if it decided the facts warranted.

For the third day in a row, the administration kept a tight lid on its intelligence estimates of what is going on inside Cuba. Many authorities said they were depending on news accounts—confusing as they are—for their information on the fighting.

PRO-CASTRO DEMONSTRATORS marched in the rain in the United Nations Plaza Tuesday, but police confined the marchers to prevent any demonstrations. (UPI Telephoto)

Air Raiders Strafe City, Wound 3

Bomb Dropped On Air Headquarters At Camp Libertad

By The Associated Press

Rebel air raiders struck at Cuban air force headquarters and Havana during the night, bringing the conflict to the capital for the first time since invaders stormed ashore last weekend, the Cuban radio said today.

The radio reported a twin-engine B26 dropped a bomb on the air force headquarters at San Antonio de los Banos, 25 miles from Havana, then wounded three persons in a strafing run on Havana.

A diplomat in Havana reported a plane that swept over Havana was met by heavy antiaircraft fire. He mentioned no strafing. A Cuban rebel radio station on Swan Island off Guatemala claimed Havana was bombed twice by three planes. It asserted one of the planes attacked Camp Libertad, army headquarters on Havana's outskirts.

The diplomat talked by telephone with an Associated Press correspondent at the big U. S. naval base on Guantanamo Bay in eastern Cuba.

He said the plane passed over the city at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday but otherwise "all is quiet for the present." He had no information about the situation elsewhere in Cuba. The situation was quiet around the naval base.

There was little news on the progress of the invasion force on the coastal front southeast and east of Havana.

A Cuban broadcast denied rebel claims of new landings in northern Matanzas and Oriente Province and said an attack against the Isle of Pines had failed. Rebel leaders had asserted earlier this week that the prison island off the south coast had fallen and its 10,000 political prisoners had joined the insurgents.

Information on the progress of the invasion and Castro's defense against it continued sketchy, with neither the government nor the rebel command announcing much and communications with Western newsmen in Havana still cut.

The Cuban government radio said fight is continuing in Las Villas Province, where the rebels are believed to have made their main invasion stab.

A correspondent for the Yugoslav newspaper Politka reported from Havana that an invasion force of about 5,000, "armed with tanks and guns, light arms of American production and under protection of airplanes are now without success trying to broaden the original bridgehead in the province of Las Villas, on the southern coast of Cuba."

U.S. Pilot Downed In Cuba, Radio Says

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The Cuban radio announced today a United States airplane piloted by a United States citizen was shot down over south-central Cuba today.

The pilot was identified as Leo Francis Bell of Boston, Mass. He was said to be carrying documents including Social Security card No. 014-07-2921.

Water Rates Hiked In Area Outside City

650 Householders To Pay 20% More In Billings July 1

City water department customers residing outside the corporate limits will pay 20 per cent more than the standard rate, compared with the present 10 per cent surcharge, the Board of Public Utilities decided Tuesday night.

The raise, to take effect immediately, will affect an estimated 650 householders all around the perimeter of the city — such as Dixonville, LaCroft, outer St. Clair Ave., Forsyth Pl. and the Hill Addition. It will be reflected for the first time for most on bills that will be mailed July 1 for the current quarter.

It amounts to the second raise within a month for the suburban householders, as they also were affected by a general 10-12 per cent hike which went into effect on April 1.

The increase for the suburban residents was voted because the board is contemplating improvements in its storage facilities for outlying areas from which they will be the principal beneficiaries, Supt. Donald T. Duke said.

The board is contemplating erection of a new standpipe to increase storage facilities for the high service area. In order to supply the standpipe, new pumping facilities also will be required, Duke said.

No decision has been reached on the location of the standpipe. That probably will be determined in an engineering study, Duke said.

The high service area is the district served by the Huston Hill reservoir and the two Henry Ave. standpipes. Most of the householders affected by the raise decreed last night reside in the high service area.

At the same time, by roll call vote, the board agreed unanimously to reaffirm action which it took in March raising rates for all its customers. That new schedule generally provided for a 10-12 per cent boost, but the rate for so-called industrial consumers was hiked from 8 cents to 24 cents per 1,000 gallons. The 24-cent rate represents the actual cost of producing and delivering 1,000 gallons of water, the board said.

The three-member board that voted in favor of reaffirming the former action is comprised of W. O. Schneider, chairman, Francis J. Cloran and Howard Moore.

Need Money, Council Told At Wellsville

Finance Chairman Outlines Problems During Discussion

The plight of city finances was outlined for Wellsville Council Tuesday night by Councilman Donald Miller, finance chairman, who said that if appropriation funds are not received from the county by the end of the month "someone will have to go without pay".

He presented the following picture:

As of Monday, the general fund had a balance of $691.46, the lowest in several years.

The refuse disposal fund totaled $592.57 at the beginning of the month, and now the department is running $1,633 in the red.

The street maintenance fund is holding up — but that is about all — primarily because of money being collected from parking meters.

The cemetery fund is $1,218.41 in the red.

Miller reminded that the tax collection by the county is slow because of the economic situation. He said that "we may have to tighten our belts" if the condition doesn't improve. He also commented that the refuse disposal department ended up $8,822 in the red in 1960.

Miller said the request from members of the police department for the city to pay for radios in their private cars will have to be tabled. He also said a request for a control traffic light at 9th and Main Sts. will have to wait, as will a request for a street light on Riverside Ave.

In other business, Council approved a sub-lease submitted by the Georgetti-River-Rail Terminal at 16th St. to let a section of the ground to the Mississippi Line Co. for installation of a covered conveyor system to handle the unloading and loading of lime.

The firm leases a section of ground from the city and any sub-leases must be approved by Council.

George Bloomgren, East Liverpool engineer, spoke for the firm, saying the lime will be unloaded from barges onto a conveyor system. It is then carried into hoppres and loaded into hopper-type trucks for distribution. The project is estimated to cost $150,000. It will take approximately 60 days to install.

Council has been receiving numerous complaints of lime blowing over the section of town near the terminal. At present, the lime is unloaded into an open hopper and during windy days the dust

Woman Cited As Arsonist

Mother Of Suspect Lost Trailer In Fire

NEW CUMBERLAND — A lengthy investigation by the state fire marshal's office and area authorities into the cause of a trailer fire has resulted in the arrest of a 26-year-old woman.

Mrs. Phyllis Martin of Wick, a former resident, was charged with arson in the fire which razed the former trailer home she and her husband had occupied. She confessed, authorities said.

The trailer, owned by her mother, Mrs. P. L. Owens of Wick, burned Feb. 25. Authorities found traces of kerosene and began an investgiation.

At a hearing Tuesday before Squire John D. Herron, Mrs. Martin was charged with arson and bound over to the September Grand Jury.

She was taken to County Jail in default of $2,500 bond.

The blaze occurred after Mrs. Martin and her husband separated. The trailer, then vacant, was several years old. Participating in the investigation were New Cumberland volunteer firemen, the county sheriff's office, Constable Donald Dunlevy, and the state fire marshal's office in Charleston.

6 Killed, 12 Injured In Navy Plane Mishap

FALLON, Nev. (AP)—Six naval reserves were killed and 12 injured when a Navy transport plane crashed on takeoff from Fallon Naval Air Auxiliary Station Tuesday.

All of the dead and most of the injured were Michigan reservists, on a two-week training flight.

The two-engine aircraft was en route to the Alameda Naval Air Station in California from Grosse Ile field near Detroit.

A Navy spokesman said the plane suddenly nosed down and crashed moments after takeoff.

Water Cutoff Set Thursday For 2 Areas

Water service in all of Dixonville and most of Beechwood will be interrupted for about six hours Thursday while crews construct a temporary bypass line around a section of six-inch main on Anderson Blvd. which is threatened by a landslide, Supt. Donald T. Duke warned today.

The turnoff will begin at 8 a.m. The work should be completed by 2 p. m. Duke warned householders to draw water supplies in advance tonight, storing enough to take care of their needs for at least six hours tomorrow.

The turnoff will affect all of Beechwood north of Haywood St., although Haywood itself will not be affected. Some of the principal streets affected are Center St., Beechwood St., Rubicon St. and Anderson Blvd. The only major business place that will be affected by the turnoff is Riverview Florists at Anderson Blvd. and Park Way.

A slow-moving landslide on Anderson Blvd. at Beechwood St. has threatened to snap the 6-inch main which is the main source of supply for the Beechwood and Dixonville areas, Duke explained.

The water department crews will tap into the line and install four valves. They will build a bypass line around the slide, placing it on the surface and connecting it with "swing joints" that will give as the terrain changes, Duke said.

In building the bypass, the water department seeks to solve two problems, Duke said. If the 6-inch main were to break, it probably would cause property damage at adjoining homes. At the same time, the temporary line will provide water service for the two affected residential areas, whether or not the main breaks.

Notice! To members of Local 21, Claymakers. Election of delegates to convention, will be held Fri., April 21st. All members urged to attend. By order of Pres.—Ad.

'Ready To Atone'

Death Penalty Expected, Ex-Nazi's Recording Says

JERUSALEM (AP)—In his own words replayed today from a tape recording, Adolf Eichmann said he expects the death penalty and is "ready to atone."

"I know that I can expect the death sentence and I don't ask for clemency," the former Gestapo colonel told Israeli police who questioned him after his capture in Argentina last year.

"I cannot claim mercy because I know I am not worthy of it," Eichmann said in the statement, which was recorded in June 1960.

In support of its charges that Eichmann was the operational director of the Nazi plan to exterminate Europe's Jews, the prosecution began replaying extended excerpts from 77 cartons of tape recordings of the pretrial interrogation.

His voice echoing hoarsely through the Jerusalem courtroom while he himself sat listening in the prisoner's dock, Eichmann said that before his death he would like to write a book. He said he wanted the younger generation to know what happened in Nazi Germany and the reasons for it.

Eichmann said he had been told in January 1960 that "I would be brought to trial and that I would not live beyond my 56th year."

He is 55 now. He did not identify the prophet.

"The first part of this prophecy already has come to pass," he said in the recorded statement.

"This case finds me in complete readiness and without any regard for my personality to tell everything that I know.

"I have always been accustomed to discipline from my childhood right through 1945—unreserved discipline.

"I knew what disobedience would have meant for me. But matters of planning until 1945 were not handed to me at any time during the preceding 10 years. I was in a lower rank than the policy makers and planners.

"I cannot claim that I had clean hands. Those who planned and gave instructions, however, got off cheaply by suicide. Others are now dying or are not to be found.

"I know I should have hanged myself in public so that all the anti-Semites in the world would have had these terrible events stressed for them."

Eichmann pictured himself as a man who recoiled from the sight of blood and nearly fainted when he was forced to witness Jews being gassed to death in the Nazi extermination camps.

"I couldn't look. I tried to avert my eyes from the sight. I was too appalled to look," he said in describing his reactions the first time he saw Jews put to death.

Settlement Reached In Dispute At Pottery

Officials of the Edwin M. Knowles China Co. and representatives of about 18 wareboys who walked off the job Monday morning in a dispute over seniority rights reached a mutually-satisfactory settlement at a conference Tuesday afternoon, the company announced.

The afternoon conference was the second of two meetings held yesterday to work out the dispute. The workers picketed the plant briefly Monday, but later withdrew their lines and returned to work pending settlement of the disagreement, which concerned division of work.

Oil Firm Hit In Gas Theft Hearing Of 2

Citing "sloppy business operations" of the American Oil Co. bulk plant of the River Rd., from which large amounts of gasoline were stolen in 1960, Judge Joel H. Sharp Tuesday at Lisbon ordered transcripts of larceny hearings be sent to the Ohio Tax Department.

The action stemmed from a probation hearing for James H. Martin, 37, of 2021 Chester Ave., Wellsville, and Robert Wright, 30, of Pleasant Heights, who have pleaded guilty to grand larceny in connection with the wholesale gasoline thefts.

Both were yardmen at the bulk plant, from which gasoline was stolen and resold to area dealers from two camouflaged trucks with concealed tanks.

Probation action was delayed yesterday by Judge Sharp, who ordered Prosecutor G. William Brokaw to check with the revenue department concerning the firm's business operations.

The judge said testimony indicated "very sloppy handling of records." He said the firm allows a fourth of one per cent loss in gasoline attributed to "waste," and the probation officer asked for a report on the gasoline missing but has never received a reply from the company, court was told.

Copies of testimony in the hearings in the case are to be presented to state officials. The Ohio Highway Patrol, which investigated the thefts, reported they occurred over a two-year period, but the defendants claim the period was only a year, and the amount taken was under the tolerance permitted.

Judge Sharp, continuing the probation ruling, said he felt "this was the sloppiest business operation I have ever come across; it seems like no one cared that this theft might be going on."

James Glover of Chester was fined $300 and sentenced to 90 days in February for petty lar-

2 Americans And 7 Cubans Are Executed

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban government broadcast today said two Americans were shot by firing squads which also executed seven Cubans.

The broadcast heard in Miami, identified the Americans as Howard Anderson and Angus McNair.

The news broadcast said the executions took place in Pinar Del Ioince where Anderson, a Seattle ex-Marine and Havana business man, and McNair, of Miami, were condemned on arms transportation charges.

Anderson operated three Havana automobile service stations and was commander of the Havana American Legion post before it disbanded during Fidel Castro's regime.

Chester Club Hears J. T. Hall

Better Ware At Reduced Prices Urged By Speaker

Better ware at lower prices — but no crash program — is the answer to improving the level of the American pottery industry, John T. Hall, president of the Hall China Co., told the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

Hall spoke on a 1959 trip to Europe with Arthur Wells of the Homer Laughlin China Co. in which the two executives visited European potteries and studied production methods.

The two chief questions asked of the pair by Europeans were why America permits imports in such quantity to hurt home industry and why is America allowing Castro to continue his communist autocracy.

Hall, who visited 21 potteries in five countries within a month, said the firms overseas are unionized, but the unions do not pressure management for uneconomic operation.

He said plants there were busy, and a major problem was manpower — in England, there were five jobs for each applicant.

Hall listed wages for labor in European plants including West Germany, at 54 cents an hour, United Kingdom, 57 cents and France, 47 cents. He said these rates include all fringe benefits.

The comparable American wage contract in potteries calls for $2.02 without fringe benefits, he said.

"We can produce the same quality, and we can deliver as quickly," he said. "Programs that insure fair competition are the answer."

About 21 attended the meeting for which Eugene Seeley was program chairman. William Parsons, first president of the Chester club, was a guest, along with Bill Yoakum of the Key Club.

The Rev. Donald Vogel gave the invocation. Russ Davis, president, was in charge.

Chalice History Told To Kaycees

Fr. Anthony Esposito, assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, and chaplain of Carroll Council 509, Knights of Columbus, gave a brief history of his personal chalice at a meeting of the council Tuesday evening in the K. of C. home.

He explained how he designed and supervised the manufacture of the chalice and its importance. The chalice was displayed.

Ralph Yanni reported on the renovation of the downstairs area and members who wish to assist in the project are to report at the hall tonight between 7 and 8.

A letter received from the Little League Baseball organization, requesting a donation, was referred to the trustees for action.

Sam Scafide, a member, was reported improving from an illness.

Kevin O'Brien, grand knight, presided. Opening and closing prayers were led by Fr. Esposito.

Next meeting is Tuesday.

C. D. Units Meet With 15 Present

About 15 attended a meeting of the 2nd and 5th Platoons of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

It was announced there will be a staff meeting at Lisbon Thursday. Denver Brereton and James Cunningham are to attend a meeting this month to plan Memorial Day ceremonies.

The units have been asked to provide help in directing traffic at the dedication of the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters headquarters at Williamsport May 6, and to help park cars at Westgate School for the "Buy Steel" parade May 6.

The Rev. Charles Kampmeyer gave prayer. Cunningham and Everett London were in charge. Next meeting is May 2.

Contest Over Weekend

31 From Sweet Adelines To Compete At Baltimore

It's off to Baltimore for 31 members of the local chapter of Sweet Adelines, Inc., to enter the regional competition this weekend at Baltimore. It will be at the Lord Baltimore Hotel.

Planning to leave Thursday and early Friday morning are: Lorida Harvey, Marie Stall, Wanda Schussler, Ruth Rinehart and Marjorie Stover, tenor; Betty Damaska, Kathleen Galeno, Doris Jackson, Thea McSwegin, Jo Ann Vannoy, Nancy Pryor, Mary Leeper and Wilma Laughlin, bass, and Edith Alexander, Sally Lynn, Sonja Rose and Norma Jones, baritone.

Ann Claypool, Clara Hall, Jan Dietz, Florence Gloeckner, Madalyn Mack, June Morgan, Vallie Mostoller, Betty Pettibon, Edna Phelps, Jane Powell, Marjorie Reed, Nancy McBrian and Mary Reed, leads.

Accompanying the group will be Mrs. Phyllis Moore of St. Louis, a former member; Mrs. Oma Fike of Somerset, Pa., Mrs. Nellie Vannoy, Mrs. Dottie Woods and Seth Phelps of Lisbon.

Glenn Woods, director, conducted the dress rehearsal Tuesday night at the Elks Club ballroom. Additions to the present costume of striped vests and royal blue skirts were distributed by the costume committee, Mrs. Mostoller, Mrs. Mary Reed and Miss Marian Pratley. They are a straw hat with striped band, bow ties, and white gloves also trimmed with a striped band.

As the selections are limited to certain fields, the group chose "Good Bye Dixie Good Bye" and "Cherry Blossom Lane."

Critiques were held at the last two practice sessions by Mrs. Joan Smith and H. M. (Hub) Rivers of Pittsburgh, Bill Brooks, Charles Brooks, Dean Manning and Glenn Hart. The selections were also taped and re-played for criticism.

The Dundalk Chapter, which won first place last year, is the hostess unit.

The local chorus, which placed third in its first competition last year, will compete with 23 other chapters from the region which includes the New York Metropolitan Area, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and Eastern Ohio.

Some 21 quartets will compete during sessions all day Friday and "The Heathertones" of the local chapter, which placed first last year, will participate in the show of winners.

Although most of the events are scheduled at the hotel, the "Champs on Parade" show will be held Saturday night at the New Patterson High School.

Section leaders appointed to take care of rehearsals at the hotel are Mary Reed, lead; Marjorie Stover, tenor; Sally Lynn, baritone, and Nancy Pryor, bass.

Kennedy, Congress Leaders Put Cares Aside For Party

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy and members of Congress put the cares of the Cuban crisis aside Tuesday night for one of the gayest parties the White House has known in some time.

About 1,200 guests danced in the huge East Ballroom until the strains of "Good Night Sweetheart" ended the party at 12:30 a. m.—a half hour later than scheduled.

President and Mrs. Kennedy led off the dancing to the tune "Mr. Wonderful" with Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson joining them in a space cleared by aides.

Kennedy, even while dancing, had to pause to shake hands with some of his former Senate colleagues. He and his wife were constantly surrounded by a crush of greeters.

As the special Marine Corps dance band unit in scarlet uniforms, switched to "I Love Paris," the Johnsons and the Kennedys switched partners.

Mrs. Kennedy wore a white and pink straw lace sheath with a diamond clip in her bouffant hair. Mrs. Johnson chose the salmon satin gown she wore to the inaugural balls.

It was a formal white tie reception, planned weeks ago, in honor of senators, representatives, Cabinet members and wives —the first such affair of the Kennedy administration. Informality prevailed.

East Fairfield Girl Honored At Shower

A surprise bridal shower honoring Miss Joyce Bender of East Fairfield was held by Mrs. Franklin Rudibaugh Saturday night.

Miss Bender, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilman Bender, will wed Royal Nelson of East Liverpool in open church rites May 21 at the East Fairfield Methodist Church.

Prizes at games were won by Miss Jetty Liggitt, Miss Velma Brinker, Mrs. Wilman Bender and Mrs. Dale Bender. About 13 attended. The table was centered with white candles and white roses.

Advises On Africa

CINCINNATI (AP)—Dr. L. G. Cowan, director of the African studies program at Columbia University, says he thinks Americans should send small businesses to Africa, using Africans as partners. He told a group of teachers Tuesday that Africans "would be able to understand and appreciate this form of free aid enterprise." He said American aid is often just a grant to a government and goes over the head of the average man.

The Manna Comes From Home

Some 50,000 Ohioans will start receiving jobless pay benefits this week under the extension law enacted by Congress and signed by President Kennedy.

It would be interesting to know how many of them realize their employers, and not a Big Brother bureaucracy in Washington, are financing the extra 13 weeks of benefits.

The political and economic battles that raged simultaneously in Columbus and Washington earlier this year added confusion to a program already too complex for busy citizens to understand.

And when the Columbus politicos reached a stalemate that took them out of the emergency picture, it left the impression that only Big Brother could be depended on to come up with the money to do the job. But the net effect would have been about the same either way.

If the proposed Ohio extender had become law, it would have suspended itself when the federal bill was enacted. That is because Ohio employers, along with employers throughout the nation, will pay for the extended benefits authorized by the federal act.

In addition to the federal and state levies they ordinarily pay on payrolls up to $3,000 a year per employe, they will be assessed an additional four-tenths of one per cent for the two calendar years of 1962 and 1963.

In the meantime, the federal government is advancing to Ohio the money to pay the extra unemployment benefits immediately.

This is not pointed out with any rancor or desire to canonize employers. There was general agreement that the extended benefits would be desirable and most employers were willing to go along.

But it is important to remember, when manna comes floating down from Washington, that it does not grow on trees along the Potomac's banks. It always comes from home.

Cancer Appeal

The annual appeal was launched today for additional funds with which to broaden the battle against dread cancer.

Progress is being made in the war on the disease, but much more remains to be done before medical science can announce that cancer finally has been brought under control.

Figures tell both the story of tragedy and progress. Officials of the local fund drive point out that 20 years ago only one out of seven who developed the disease was saved, while today it is one out of three. Progress to be sure, but still a deadly picture.

The funds received from campaigns such as that now in full swing here are used to further the American Cancer Society's educational program and to provide additional scientific research that eventually should lead to a cure.

When the volunteer workers knock on your door or ring your bell give as generously, or more so, as you have in the other worthwhile drives which have been conducted here. No one deserves your support more than the American Cancer Society.

Handwriting On The Wage Wall

Walter Reuther's lively interest in salaries for workers does more than foreshadow a talking point in his negotiations with the automobile industry this year. The president of the United Auto Workers is foreshadowing what may become the biggest talking point in U.S. labor relations.

The claim is going to be made that income uncertainty could be abolished for wage earners. This is not as far-fetched as it sounds when the effect of 39 weeks of unemployment benefits already is a form of guarantee for three-fourths of a year and when auto workers have been drawing supplemental unemployment benefits.

A guaranteed annual wage always has had the connotation of something to be paid by employers as an obligation; likewise a salary. What may be evolving is something quite different in principle — a guaranteed annual income for artisans paid for by a combination of private enterprise and government.

If Mr. Reuther, who never has been caught napping on new points to bargain about in labor negotiations, could establish the principal that workers should be paid salaries, instead of hourly wages, it would follow as the night follows the day that salaries would be guaranteed through unemployment insurance, the same as wages now are guaranteed.

And one day it would follow as the day follows the night that the whole country would wake up to the realization that while it had been asleep the guaranteed annual wage had been introduced in a pilot version under the name of something else, with the public treasury providing in emergencies what the employer had failed to stow away in unemployment compensation and supplemental unemployment benefits.

Let Them Know

The Wellsville Ministerial Association is taking advantage of a phase of our democratic form of government which too often is neglected — that of letting those who represent us in the legislative chambers on a state and national level know just how we feel on various measures on which they must vote.

In this case, the ministers have gone to bat for bills in the Ohio General Assembly which would provide for stricter controls over certain forms of gambling.

They will make their feelings clear in letters to Rep. Clarence Wetzel and Rep. J. Warren Bettis of Columbiana County.

Too often only those who oppose an issue are heard. Better government would be served if both sides were to come forward. Whether for or against, if you feel it vital to the common good let your legislators know your opinions in a constructive sort of way.

Through your expressions, they may be able to arrive at conclusions more beneficial to the greatest number of people they represent.

A Tale Of Two Stories

A story on Page One of Tuesday night's Review disclosed that City Council had enacted two pieces of legislation to provide engineering work for the proposed improvement of St. Clair Ave.

Some $18,000 was appropriated out of city income tax revenue to finance preparation of construction plans.

On Page 18 was another story announcing that petitions seeking repeal of the city income tax will be distributed tonight at a meeting of Trades and Labor Council.

The two stories serve as the basis for another appeal that the tax be given a fair opportunity to demonstrate its value before again being placed on the chopping block.

Though it would be only a drop in the bucket so far as the over-all cost is concurred, the use of the $18,000 to help get things rolling on St. Clair illustrates what useful purposes can be served by revenue from the tax.

Before you sign a petition aimed at killing the tax again, give the matter the most serious consideration. Don't be high-pressured into placing your name on a petition. Consider the over-all welfare of the community before making a decision.

The small amount you pay in city income tax could bring you big dividends if given the opportunity.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Russia seems to be extra smart in casting and direction of outer space drama. Through Yuri it not only got a man close to the stars but brought a star close to the people.

The Russian hero has glamour, poise, dignity, color, charm, stature and terrific all-around personality appeal. No Hollywood director could have a better selection.

The Soviet direction of the "big show" in Moscow was flawless. Its opening interlude, when cameras focussed completely on the first man-in-space on what seemed a long march from plane to grandstand, was gripping in its simplicity.

Furthermore, it didn't follow American routine of letting hordes of cameramen surround and almost hide the star, shoving cameras into his face from every angle. In a similar event in America the TV audience would be left wondering whether the trip into outer space had been made by rocket-passenger or by the North American Association of Photographers.

But Khrushchev must now be thinking, "What have I done? I sent this fellow to show us the way to put a man on the moon, not to put me into an eclipse."

We fancy Nikita exclaiming, "This Russian is wonderful. WHAT AM I SAYING ! !"

Handsome, modest, kindly-looking major has given the world a new picture of the Russian personality.

Suddenly the stern, frozen faces of Soviet leaders are replaced by captivating hero who smiles, radiates kindliness and seems free of any suggestion of hate, anger or arrogance. (All this, and faultless fitting clothes, with smartly tilted hat, too!)

Khrushy and his leaders may be asking before long, "Have we put this man in orbit around us?" Impression generally is that the major may be harder to bring down now than last week.

An idol is an idol but in Russia all amateur idols are generally under government operation and control. (Careful, Yuri. Your leader could send you up again, without the return precautions.)

THE WORLD WILL GET a break if Khrushchev doesn't begin acting and talking as if he had made trip in outer space and Yuri had been just a stand-in.

The Russian major must be a brave man. He walked right up and let Nikita kiss him.

Nickel postage stamp is on the way, boosting the high cost of writing. Possible appeal, "Mister, can ya spare a nickel? I wanna write me mother."

World session of psychiatrists will be held in Montreal, Can., with 3,000 expected from 62 nations. Meeting will be called to order with chairman, putting all others on sofa and asking, "Now relax and answer this question: Was this trip necessary?"

The United States has sued General Motors for alleged monopoly of locomotive building. We didn't even know we could drop in at GM and buy a locomotive in choice of colors. There would be "kicks" in looking over a Diesel and asking, "Now what's the extra equipment?"

Going Samson One Better

Old Wage-Labor Group Summoned

By Victor Riesel

If one of Chairman Khrushchev's little brothers is watching us from outer space, he'll note that we're not waiting until 1984 to prepare — right down to the most minute economic detail — for sudden shooting. Secretary of Labor Goldberg has just revived an old unused committee to control prices, wages, salaries and avert strikes in the event of a megaton Pearl Harbor or even a Korea in Laos.

Victor Riesel

In April 5, after talking to the President, Mr. Goldberg wrote to a special committee of nine management men — The Management Advisory Committee on Wage Stabilization and Labor Disputes. The Cabinet member asked them to confer with him all of Thursday, April 20.

These men were surprised. They, and a separate Labor Advisory Committee, had been appointed years ago by former Labor Secretary Mitchell.

NEITHER GROUP ever met. Last January they received a form letter from Mr. Mitchell thanking them for their services. They are busy men to whom a committee meeting is as novel as a countdown at Cape Canaveral.

Among them are such industrial relations experts as Fred Atkinson of R. H. Macy's; Virgil Day of General Electric, Howard Kaltenborn of Westinghouse, Dan Loomis of the National Railroad Association, Louis Seaton of General Motors, and other specialists with Sinclair Oil and Boeing.

Their labor counterpart is so old one of its members is dead, another retired from his union and a third has long been inactive. Apparently this group will be revised.

Thus the invitation from the new secretary of labor came as a surprise to the management men. The letter said, in effect, that the Labor Department has been assigned "certain functions" in the event of an all-out attack or limited war.

"I should like to outline," said Goldberg, "how the government might proceed on wage stabilization and disputes ... " in the event of war.

OBVIOUSLY this is a move to prevent being caught short should we need emergency mobilization.

When the committee was first created its members were told that they would be consulted on two points.

"In the event of a Korean type emergency," the literature said, "a psychological reaction will institute immediate and violent inflationary pressures."

In the event of total and Pearl Harbor emergency destruction there would be need for thorough and immediate economic status quo.

This committee, operating under something called Annex 27 of the mobilization code, would be part of a swift government move for:

1. Establishing the national policies and taking the federal actions required to support the mobilization of all economic forces and the maximum utilization of surviving human, material, and economic resources."

THIS COMMITTEE would be the management group consulted on "authorizing the general control of prices, wages, salaries and rents and the imposition of rationing and it will be responsible for creating emergency stabilization agencies."

These agencies would "advise and assist, as rapidly as possible, in immediate local-state post-attack operations in these fields and gradually. . .absorb these interim operations."

Should there be open fighting in Laos between an allied force including U.S. troops and the international Communist armies, there still would be some form of price, wage, salary, rent and credit control.

The point is to fight inflation. This committee should not be confused with the special 21-man presidential Labor - Management Advisory Committee, which will meet on May 1.

This larger group is a cold-war-time operation. The smaller, revived committee is for hotter times — may they never come.

But little brother can tell big brother we're taking no chances.

Second Tough Warning

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy's tough warning to Soviet Premier Khrushchev to keep hands off Cuba was the second time in 10 months an American president has done that. President Eisenhower did it last July.

But from the standpoint of opinion in some parts of the world, the United States is in the position of saying, don't do what I do but do as I say.

In 1958, when the government of her next-door neighbor, Iraq, was overthrown, Lebanon's President Chamoun asked this country for help to protect it against possible assault.

Eisenhower sent in Marines, even though Lebanon is just a hop-skip-and-jump from Russia. Now when Fidel Castro, in the American front yard, wants Russian help, the United States tells the Soviets to keep out.

While Lebanon wasn't invaded, Cuba has been—although Kennedy says Americans are taking no part in it.

Last July, long before Castro's government was invaded, Khrushchev not only pledged him full support against attack but threatened this country with rockets.

Eisenhower, in a warning just as tough as Kennedy's, told Khrushchev this country would "not be deterred" by Soviet threats from its pledges on allowing no foreign interference in the Western Hemisphere.

This country has a treaty with 20 other American republics to prevent any outside interference with any of them or outside action that endangers them.

Again this week, with Castro besieged, Khrushchev said, "We shall render the Cuban people and their government all necessary assistance in beating back the armed attack on Cuba."

He said the armed bands invading Cuba had been trained in this country.

Kennedy told him Tuesday night: "In the event of any military intervention by outside force we will immediately honor our obligations under the inter-American system to protect this hemisphere against external aggression."

Then Kennedy, who has been leaning over backwards to sound non-belligerent and get along with Khrushchev, belted him with this for extra: "What your government believes is its own business; what it does in the world is the world business."

The "inter-American system" to which Kennedy referred is the same one Eisenhower had in mind. Its roots go back 137 years in American history.

In a message to Congress Dec. 2, 1823, President James Monroe said North and South America are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European powers."

This became known as the Monroe Doctrine. It kept European powers from moving into the Western Hemisphere after that. Thirteen years ago at Rio de Janeiro the American nations went one step further.

Instead of relying on the Monroe Doctrine alone — which put the burden of protection on the United States — they signed an agreement of "reciprocal assistance." Eventually 21 American republics signed.

Simply it pledged them to take mutual action against any attempt by an outside power which threatened the sovereignty of any of the 21 signers or otherwise endangered hemisphere peace.

If Russia did try to help Castro it is questionable whether all the signers of the treaty would join with the United States in any action it took against Soviet intervention in Cuba.

There has been a lot of demonstrating in Latin America these past few days over the invasion of Cuba. Cuba itself was a signatory to the treaty before Castro took over in 1959.

The Kennedy stand may be enough to discourage Khrushchev from any adventures on Castro's behalf. But, judging from the statement Khrushchev made Tuesday, it seems a good guess he'll now make trouble elsewhere.

In his message to Kennedy, promising Castro support, he said "we are sincerely interested in a relaxation of international tension, but if others aggravate it, we shall reply in full measure. And in general it is hardly possible to handle matters in such a way as to settle the situation and extinguish the conflagration in one area and kindle a new conflagration in another."

He undoubtedly was talking about Kennedy's efforts to get Russia to agree to a cease-fire in Laos. Just two days ago this country said Russia's ideas on a cease-fire don't go far enough.

Khrushchev has been stalling on the cease-fire while the Communist guerrillas in Laos try to gobble up more of the country. Now Khrushchev is likely to put the heat on Laos for fair, and maybe some place else, too.

Adamant Khrushchev

By David Lawrence

Red Leader Rejects Disarmaments Plan

Nikita Khrushchev is adamant, defiant and inflexible. He has no present intention of making an agreement on disarmament or nuclear testing. he is convinced that the United States has no leverage over him and, therefore, cannot make him change his rigid policies that now threaten the peace of the world.

David Lawrence

These impressions are derived from a reading of the positive views of the Soviet premier, as revealed in an interview obtained in Russia by Walter Lippmann and published this week.

Mr. Khrushchev is apparently relieved that what is called the Dulles Doctrine—that the neutrality of small states is allegedly "immoral"—has been abandoned by the United States. But further on the Soviet premier declares rather inconsistently that he doesn't think there is really such a thing as neutrality of individuals.

This must mean, of course, also the persons who head governments. He is, indeed, reported as saying that he would never accept a neutral to administer the proposed disarmament agreement, for he wouldn't entrust the security of the Soviet Union to any foreigner.

Mr. Lippmann concludes that in Mr. Khrushchev's view "there can be international cooperation only if, in the administration as well as in the policy-making, the Soviet Union has a veto."

Perhaps the most interesting piece of information that the Soviet premier conveyed was in relation to nuclear weapons.

He insisted that Russia had never done any underground testing and never will. This is incredible.

The reason he gives is that such tests were designed to perfect small tactical weapons. He says the Russians haven't wanted to produce them because they are expensive and are not decisive.

Just why expense should bother Mr. Krushchev is a mystery, for at will he can deprive the Soviet people of the benefits of a higher standard of living by concentrating the use of their hard-earned funds on anything from a sputnik to a nuclear device.

He doesn't hesitate to spend the money of the people of the Soviet Union on a "very new and gadgety swimming pool" which Mr. Lippmann mentioned as one of the sights he saw at the Khrushchev headquarters on the shore of the Black Sea.

The Soviet Premier lost no opportunity during this interview to get across to those who will be reading it his hostility to the American effort to work out a disarmament agreement.

As usual he becomes personal and attacks John J. McCloy, the man chosen by President Kennedy to head up the disarmament planning for the United States.

KHRUSCHEV claims that Mr. McCloy is primarily a believer in armaments but the unpalatable truth which faces the Soviet premier is that the new head of the American disarmament group just doesn't want to see an agreement signed which would give the Russians any opportunity to cheat.

Yet Mr. Khrushchev speaks of the selection of Mr. McCloy as "a case of asking the goat to look after the cabbage patch."

American generals and admirals whose speeches are promptly censored if they say anything unfavorable about Mr. Khrushchev must have smiled as they read this wanton disregard of the "amenities" by the Russian dictator himself.

The Soviet premier as usual throws out hints and accusations which he knows are groundless but he never fails to put these suspicions into conversations he has with American writers or members of Congress.

To say, as Mr. Khrushchev did, that the forces behind the Kennedy administration can be summed up "in the one word 'Rockefeller' " is to imply that the President is under some powerful influence exerted by the New York governor.

The American people and all the European observers who have been here know this isn't so but it suits Mr. Khrushchev to say it largely because he has to find some way to insinuate that Mr. Kennedy is not a free agent and will not be making his own decisions.

EVERYONE who knows Mr. Kennedy—including the Russian ambassador to the U.S.—can tell Mr. Khrushchev that the President has an independent mind.

If by all this twaddle, the Soviet premier hopes to downgrade the American President or to regard him as a weakling who will kowtow to the Russian dictator, he has the surprise of his life in store for him.

The net effect of such an attitude as Mr. Khrushchev displays toward current questions is to increase distrust of the Kremlin and to stimulate efforts here to strengthen the American military position so that, if the dictator in his bluff tactics goes to the brink of war, the United States will not be found yielding but without flinching will accept the challenge.

Purely Personal

By Truman Twill

There's still another way to bear up bravely under the rigors of the weather, which is to ignore it. Thus, when an April snowstorm and gale have battered you to your knees and someone sneers, "What do you think of this weather?" you look bland and ask, "What weather?" It drives people mad.

The hospital documentary which made a splash on television last Sunday night was based on a hospital that looked unlike any hospital I have seen and I think misrepresented a problem of immediate interest to all the people who watched it.

I was pleased to learn that Barry Goldwater is too far to the left to suit the John Birch people, because I took a shine to the Goldwater family at the Republican convention. Remember Mrs. Goldwater and the children? Remember the senator's speech, taking himself out of contention for the nomination? I didn't want to see these people lined up with the wrong crowd.

Every spring for years I have promised myself I would cut an armful of willow switches and stick them into the ground the way the late Louis Bromfield said he did on Malabar Farm, but I never get around to it because I've never convinced myself it is that easy to propagate willow trees.

My favorite, the Irish setter, did fine in the Chicago dog show, and I now believe if these beautiful animals would have fewer puppies per litter they'd be the most sought-after breed in the country. Trouble is that when we had a pair they happily produced 26 puppies in first two litters, which saturated the market for miles around.

Let us pray that when our great good government does put a man into space, for whatever the stunt may be worth, it will not cream up the announcement the way the Kremlin loused up the Gagarin thing—so completely that no skeptic can believe the guy got off the ground.

Editors' Report Critical

Administration Attacked On Suppression Of News

By STERLING F. GREEN

WASHINGTON (AP)—A committee of editors reported today that newsmen, despite their freer access to the White House itself, are having trouble with news suppression in the Kennedy administration.

Several hundred editors, opening the annual meeting here of the American Society of Newspaper Editors (ASNE), found waiting a critical report from the society's Freedom of Information Committee headed by Eugene S. Pulliam, managing editor of the Indianapolis News.

The Pulliam report noted that President Kennedy before and after his election "was on record in writing as believing in freedom of information and in his duty to see that the people are informed."

"To date, neither he nor his administration has lived up to his promise," the report said.

The report was presented to the ASNE board Tuesday. ASNE officials announced at the meeting that 11 Soviet editors will visit the United States in May in response to an invitation extended by American editors about two years ago.

The Pulliam report directed its criticism at "the State and Defense departments particularly." It advised the ASNE that Kennedy's news secretary, Pierre Salinger, has failed to answer nine questions put to him by the committee two months ago concerning specific instances of withholding of news.

Meantime, said the information report, "there have been increasing complaints from the Washington press corps, most of them justified."

Kennedy, six of his Cabinet officers and other officials of the new administration will address the society during its four-day meeting. Today's opening program was devoted to a seminar in which five scientists were scheduled to address the editors on topics ranging from space exploration to microorganisms.

The Pulliam report paid tribute to the efforts of Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the House subcommittee on Government Information, the late Sen. Thomas Hennings, D-Mo., and Rep. Porter Hardy, D-Va., for their efforts to lower news barriers in Congress and the executive branch.

Bidding Slated May 5 For 2nd New Cruiser

Bids on the purchase of a second new police cruiser will be opened at City Hall at noon Friday, May 5, Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver announced Tuesday.

Auto dealers were asked to submit alternate bids — offering a price without a trade-in and quoting a second price if they take in trade a 1959 Ford four-door sedan — Cruiser No. 1 — which has been declared beyond economical repair.

Council provided $2,500 for the cruiser purchase in the annual appropriation ordinance enacted in March. The first new cruiser, a 1961 model Rambler, was put into service last Friday afternoon.

2 Men Are Killed In Propane Gas Blast

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—An electric spark touched off accumulated propane gas in a 40-foot-high grain dryer Tuesday, and the resulting explosion killed two men.

Killed instantly was Paul W. Long, 44, owner of the farm near Elida where the accident occurred. The other victim, Horace Martin, 65, of Fort Jennings (Putnam County), died about four hours later in Lima St. Rita Hospital. Officials estimated damage at $8,000.

Indicted In Kidnaping

DETROIT (AP)—Thaddeus Wellbaum, 31, Toledo, Ohio, church organist, has been indicted by a federal grand jury on a charge of kidnaping a 7-year-old boy April 9. Police say Wellbaum has admitted picking up the boy in Detroit and driving him to Toledo, where he abandoned him. The charge, under the so-called Lindbergh Act, carries a maximum penalty of death.

Deaths and Funerals

Death Claims Woman At 71

Miss Otta Cora Fleming of Toronto, a native of Jefferson County, died Tuesday at 4:55 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Hospital in Steubenville, following an extended illness. She was 71.

She was born June 22, 1889, daughter of James Fleming and Isabel Davis Fleming. She was a member of the Methodist Church, its WSCS and Missionary Society and the WCTU of Toronto. For several years she served as teacher and superintendent of the Primary Department.

She leaves three sisters, Mrs. Oma Everson of Brilliant, and Miss Bertha Fleming and Wilella Fleming, both of Toronto, and a brother, Emmett Fleming, also of Toronto.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Clarke Funeral Home in Toronto by the Rev. Charles Dailey. Burial will be in the Toronto Union Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9 and Thursday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Mrs. Eattna Schmidt

Mrs. Eattna Schmidt of Salineville died this morning at 8:30 at City Hospital, where she was a patient for 11 days. She had been ill four months.

She was the daughter of Henry Thorn and Margaret E. Rose Thorn.

She leaves four sons, Charles Schmidt of Herlong, Calif., Oliver Schmidt of East Canton, George Schmidt of St. Louis, and Ralph Schmidt of Salineville; a half-sister, Mrs. Essie Ward of Canton, and eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the Haugh Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. E. E. Bacon, pastor of the Oak Ridge Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery in Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home Thursday.

Mrs. Helen Wiant

Services for Mrs. Helen Carpenter Wiant, 236 W. 4th St., will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the Dawson Funeral Home by the Rev. Charles Kampmeyer, pastor of St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

She died Wednesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Harry Simpson, 830 Chester Ave., following a long illness.

Friends may call at the funeral home tonight.

Seaman Fined

EAST PALESTINE — Seaman Charles Eyster, 22, of 716 E. Main St., home on leave, was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail for driving while intoxicated at a hearing Tuesday. Eyster was cited early yesterday after his car veered into steps of the Eagles Lodge home on E. Taggart St. He pleaded guilty before Mayor Robert Harding.

Dinner Postponed

UNITY — A father-son banquet of the United Ruritan Club slated Thursday has been postponed to April 27, Lester McConnville, president, announced today.

Post Names 2 New Officers

Howard Watkins was appointed as first vice commander and Donald Henthorn as second vice commander by William Boyce, commander, at a meeting of American Legion Post 70 Monday night at Wellsville.

They fill vacancies created several months ago and will serve until the annual election in June.

Boyce announced the annual street fair will be held the week of July 10 at the city square. Named to an advance arrangements committee were Frank Sommers, Joe Ammon and Harry Excell. William Powell and Jerome Gitschier will handle sale of advance tickets.

A donation was made to the Columbiana County Cancer Society. It was reported the auxiliary had donated $10 toward expenses on an egg hunt held at Easter.

Francis House, adjutant, reported membership is ahead of last year. Plans were started for an outside stag picnic in June.

A shuffleboard tournament among members will begin Friday. Two tickets to a Pirate baseball game, plus expenses, will be given each member of the winning team.

Wellsville

is spread over a wide area, the complaints said.

Council was assured this would be taken care of. The new installation will employ six to eight more men. Seven men now work at the operation.

Later in the meeting, William Menough, 1144 Main St., Wellsville High School principal, spoke from the audience and complained of the situation.

He said the lime dust completely covered his yard, home and all the surrounding property. He termed it a "hazardous condition."

He said if the condition is permitted to continue, the city will have an awful lot of low value property in the area. He pointed out the sub-lease approved by Council does not give any assurance that the new system will be installed.

He said the lime dust constitutes a health hazard and asked for some definite action from Council to correct the situation.

Following a discussion of the problem, Council informally agreed the situation would be termed a nuisance and the operation directed to halt if not corrected.

John Grafton, president of the City Board of Health, also spoke from the audience and said the dust could easily constitute a health menace.

Oil Firm

ceny in connection with the thefts. His wife was fined $50 for receiving stolen goods. Two city service station operators were also fined for receiving stolen gasoline.

Robert Deering of Elizabeth St., owner of the two trucks, has not been located since the investigation.

In another case, Joseph E. Raimond of Newell was placed on five years probation for possession of instruments for administering drugs. Raimond, cited by city police in June 1959, had been in a hospital for some time since. He requested probation in February.

Water Rates

Moore recently was named to the board by Mayor Bert H. Goodballet to replace James Mullen, who resigned when he moved to Ohio View. Moore was not a member at the time the first increase was voted.

A schedule of the new rates will be mailed to all customers with the next billing, Duke said. Instead of postcard notices, as usual, the customers will receive envelopes containing the bills and their bills.

75 At Bethel Church

Seventy-five attended the annual father-son banquet Tuesday night at the Bethel Presbyterian Church near Highlandtown.

Lester McIntosh screened slides of various trips he made. Walter Hays gave the opening prayer and the Rev. Joseph H. Varner offered the closing prayer.

Chester Club Sets Cancer Fund Drive

Further plans for the annual Cancer Fund Crusade in Chester were made at a meeting of the Junior Women's Club Monday night at the American Legion home at Chester.

Mrs. Alfred Creighton, drive chairman, announced a public round and square dance will be held May 5 at the City Hall auditorium for the fund. Mrs. William Erlitz is committee chairman.

A traffic solicitation will be held Saturday on Carolina Ave., with a house-to-house canvass slated next week.

Mrs. James Shaw, ways and means chairman, announced committee heads for the annual spring dance May 19 at the Elks Club in East Liverpool.

They are Mrs. James Waggle, decorations; Mrs. Pauline Figley, tickets; Mrs. Jack Huff, publicity, and Mrs. Donald Glass, orchestra.

A contribution of $5 was authorized for the Chester High School post-prom party May 19.

Refreshments were served 22 by Mrs. Larry Wright and Mrs. Robert Brant. Mrs. Clayton Hobbs, president, was in charge.

The annual mother - daughter tea will be held at the meeting May 1.

Booklet Issued On Conservation Of Nation's Soil

LISBON — "Help Keep Our Land Beautiful" is the title of a new 16-page booklet just issued by the Soil Conservation Society of America.

This picture story in color of an American family touring the United States in their station wagon portrays vividly their concern about the treatment of man's basic resource — the soil, according to Dawson Irey, chairman of the Columbiana Soil Conservation District.

On their trip, the Webster family encounters floods and attendant property and soil devastation. They see the effects of soil erosion by wind and water and they come upon wildlife destroyed by man through unwise practices. As they travel, they become interested in what is being done about protecting the nation's natural resources.

Walter C. Bumbel of Fairmont, W. Va., president of the society, said "we believe the story told in this little booklet should be read by all citizens for all have a stake in the future of the country regardless of where they live."

"Help Keep Our Land Beautiful" is the fifth in a series of educational booklets distributed by the Soil Conservation Districts, business firms, industries and others. In demand by schools, youth and adult groups, they are designed to tell the story of conservation needs to everyone.

Irey said those interested in obtaining bulk quantities may contact the office on E. Washington St. or they can get single copies by sending 20 cents to the Soil Conservation Society of America, 838 5th Ave., Des Moines, 14, Iowa.

4 From Hancock At State Session

Four Hancock County women are attending a leadership training conference for Farm Women's Club members this week at Jacksons Mill.

The delegation is headed by Mrs. Floyd Grimes of Weirton, representing the County Farm Women's Council. The conference opened Monday and will continue through Friday.

Mrs. Grimes is receiving training in special classes for county presidents and Mrs. Kenneth Timberlake of the Agathelian Club in Civil Defense.

Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. Earl Dennis of the Grandview Club are studying home management, taxation and government, family relationships and community organization.

The conference theme is "Opportunity — My Invitation to Action."

Group At Pughtown Will Hold Bake Sale

A bake sale was set for April 27 at Harl Stover's service station when the Friendship Sunday School Class of the Pughtown Presbyterian Church met Monday night with Mrs. Ralph Huff.

The class also will sponsor a rummage sale in Weirton April 29-May 3. Bibles have been purchased for the Sunday School classes.

Devotions were led by Mrs. William Bailey Jr. Mrs. Robert Swain, president, conducted business.

Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jay Allison. Next meeting is May 15 with Mrs. Fred Herron of Pughtown.

The surface units of a range should be wiped off at least once each day; some homemakers wipe them off after any meal for which any large amount of cooking has been done.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Weight Gain Program Offered Thin Girls

Thin girls, weigh in. With summer soon to come, you are eager to pursue positive gaining measures. The dietitian will direct the calories your way this week. Get ready to gain a round dozen pounds . . . all in the right places.

Ida Jean Kain

In order for you to put a little meat on bones, your daily calories must exceed your requirements. The solution to your underweight seems easy . . . all you need to do is eat more food. Alas, it's not always that simple. If your appetite is as fickle as the weather on an April day, you can't force yourself to eat more.

Poor appetite can result from a combination of things . . . faulty food habits, irregularity of meals, or chronic fatigue. If you feel dragged-out and weary, talk it over with your doctor.

SOME SMALL but significant change in your health habits may well be the turning point toward desirable weight and renewed energy.

Perhaps you are in need of more iron, or Vitamin B-12 or some other member of the B-complex family. Correct the anemia or the deficiency and your appetite will perk up. Make sure that you are "free to gain."

It takes high quality nutrition plus extra calories for gaining. Nutrition has been defined as the process of assimilating food. Certain nutrients aid in the assimilation of food.

Get on friendly terms with that word, 'nutrients,' and make sure you get your share of "full" calories, by eating the foods which furnish an abundance of the vital nutrients. The good food values in the protective foods work together in nutrition teamwork. For this reason it is important to eat well-balanced meals.

The Four Food Group plan is a convenient guide in meal planning.

Build your meals around these foods: Milk group, 2 or more cups, including cheese and ice cream; Meat group, 2 or more servings, this includes poultry, fish, and eggs; Vegetable and Fruit group, 4 or more servings, including one citrus fruit and 1 dark green or deep yellow vegetable; Bread and Cereal group, 4 or more servings.

This basic pattern furnishes high quality nutrition. Add more calories in your favorite foods.

Breakfast is a necessary and important meal. You may not balk at breakfast . . . only at the time of day. To get the 'Sunday morning feeling' in your heart on an ordinary weekday, set your mind to waking up with the gladsome feeling.

This doesn't mean you must feel like leaping out of bed! But in the spring of the year, when all of earth is renewed, the day should hold a promise.

APPETITE FOR breakfast is developed by eating breakfast. Just for a lark, eat anything that suites your fancy tomorrow morning. Breakfast need not be 'standard,' or limited to just certain foods.

If you'd like custard pie for breakfast — why not? But don't have just two cups of coffee and call it a meal. That's stimulation without staying power, or calories.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "Grade A Nutrition For Weight Gaining." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Explorer Scouts Make Lake Trip

Six local Explorer Scouts and three from Salem have returned from a weekend cruise aboard the Whitehall, a patrol and rescue escort craft at Cleveland. The ship is used to train Naval Reserve units.

Making the trip were Bud Andrews and Ed Carnes of Post 21, Mike Rogers and Dave Couch of Post 7, Mike McGahan and Gary Stutler of Post 36 and Larry Crumbaker, Ronnie Crumbaker and George Murphy of Post 2 at Salem.

The boys spent all day Saturday aboard the ship and were out in Lake Erie 25 miles. They stayed overnight at the Cleveland Coast Guard station. During the cruise they participated in boat and rescue drills and had various ship duties.

The lake was roughened by wind Sunday and some of them became seasick. Bill Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, and Frank L. Thompson, local Navy recruiter, were in charge.

Tours, including a look at the inside of a submarine, are available for interested units.

50 Hear School Plans Explained

Approximately 50 attended a public meeting Monday night in Wells High School in Newell to hear Supt. Robert H. Hall outline Hancock County's proposed $5¼ million bond issue for school expansion and modernization.

The event was sponsored by the Newell Lions Club. The bond issue will be presented to county voters May 16 in a special election.

Passage of the bond issue to underwrite construction of two new high schools, a new junior high and new elementary school will not mean increases in taxes, Supt. Hall emphasized. The present tax rates will be continued for 18 years if the bond issue is approved.

"Highlights In the Field of Cancer" was program theme for the afternoon meeting of the Monday Literary Club with Mrs. Donald Ogilvie of Dairy Ln.

Mrs. M. Rudolph Miller conducted roll call on "Jonas Salk." Excerpts included glimpses into his personal life, his contributions to medicine and his plans for cancer research.

Mrs. William J. Horger, program chairman, used the topic "Progress In Cancer Research." She said it was known in Egyptian times and related many phases of the disease.

Mrs. Richard Moninger, president, conducted business. A contribution was given to the Columbiana County Cancer Society.

Refreshments were served by the hostess at a buffet table covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. Moninger presided at the silver tea service.

The closing luncheon will be held at 1 o'clock May 9 at the Country Club. Mrs. John Koos, chairman, Mrs. Robert M. Wells and Mrs. William F. Porter are in charge of arrangements.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Quartet selections featured the meeting of the auxiliary of the Community Rescue Mission Monday night. Some 35 attended.

It was comprised of Miss Betsy Eunson, Mrs. Mary Nutter and Misses Linda and Carol Portsmann.

Miss Eunson, who conducted devotions, read an article, "The Molding — As a Potter." Mrs. John Keller read Scripture from Gal. 5: 22-25.

Mrs. Grace Lawrence, president, conducted business and spoke on plans and progress of the mission. Contributions are welcome for the deep freeze recently purchased.

Members of the Boyce Methodist Church served refreshments. Churches represented were the Calvary, Boyce and Pennsylvania Ave. Methodist; Trinity, Calcutta and First United Presbyterian; First and Second Baptist; First Church of Christ, First Nazarene, Pleasant Heights United Brethren in Christ and Pleasant Heights Bible Baptist.

Mrs. Beulah Hill of the Newell United Presbyterian will conduct devotions May 15. Lunch will be served by members of the Calvary church with Mrs. Irene Firth chairman.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Get-well cards were signed for Mrs. Matilda Chapman, Mrs. Viola Frye, Mrs. Florence Phillips and Mrs. Lucy Lewis at the meeting of Pa Mir Zuana 43, Ladies of the Orient, Monday night at the IOOF Temple.

Mrs. Alice Tittle, queen ashayhi, presided. An invitation was read for the Tri-State convention May 19-20 at Youngstown.

All won prizes at games.

Refreshments were served 26 at a buffet table decorated with vases of jonquils and forsythia along with yellow and green crepe paper streamers. Favors were mint cups.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hazel Tittle, Mrs. Ora Rumberger and Mrs. Nell Pelley.

Next meeting is May 15. Miss Gladys Robinson, Mrs. Laura Costello and Miss Mae McAllister are hostesses.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

A round-robin letter of congratulations upon the birth of a daughter, Judy Irene, was written for Mrs. Martha Kelly at the meeting of the DNI Club Monday night with Mrs. Kathleen Nuzum of Riley Ave.

Mrs. Wallie Clark and Mrs. Gloria Davis received birthday anniversary gifts from secret pals. Prize winners at two tables of bridge were Mrs. Alice Jones and Mrs. Edwardina Zinsmeister.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Pat Dray was a guest.

Mrs. Loretta Cubberly of Bank St. will entertain May 15.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Mrs. Shirley Hilditch was hostess for the Monday Night Club at the home of Mrs. Mary Sanford of Bank St.

Two tables of 500 were in play with trophies awarded Mrs. Joan Leedy, Mrs. Sondra White and Mrs. Frances Taylor, a guest, along with Mrs. Janet Nottingham. Mrs. Sally Beadle won travel.

Lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Joan Leedy of Smithfield St. will be hostess May 8.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

Plans for a spring rummage sale were made at the meeting of B'nai Israel Sisterhood Monday night at the B'nai Israel Temple.

Slated for May 3-5, it will be held in the Rapport Building on Broadway.

Medical Figure Dies

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Dr. Charles E. Allen, 84, last surviving founder of Sertoma International, died Tuesday, apparently of a heart attack. Dr. Allen, who retired from medical practice this year, and two other men founded the club in 1912. Its name was changed from Cooperative to Sertoma, a word coined from service to man, in 1950. The club has 250 chapters and more than 13,300 members.

From an early American cookbook: "Few people know how to keep the flavor of sweet marjoram; the best of all herbs for broth, and stuffing. It should be gathered in bud or blossom, and dried in a tin-kitchen at a moderate distance from the fire; when dry it should be immediately rubbed, sifted, and corked up in a bottle carefully."

6 Pupils Presented Poetry Prizes

These six students at St. Aloysius Parochial School received awards Tuesday night from Court Dunne 937, Catholic Daughters of America, as local winners in the national poetry contest sponsored by the CDA.

Fr. Anthony Esposito, assistant pastor at St. Aloysius, hands an award to Judith Canne, first - place winner in the division for seventh, eighth and ninth graders.

Miss Nicastro was second and Miss Skvarka third.

Bennett was the winner for fourth, fifth and sixth graders with Miss Geon second and Miss Falone third.

The contest was for creative poetry bearing a Catholic theme. Miss Canne's poem was "My Protection" and Bennett's "God's Promise."

The awards were presented following a dinner at the school, Mrs. A. J. Brown, grand regent, presided.

Nurses Group Hears Talk By President Of Eye Bank

Regis Meehan, president of the Beaver County Lighthouse Eye Bank, which is affiliated with the Pittsburgh Eye Bank, spoke at the meeting of the Nurses Alumnae Association Monday night in the classroom of City Hospital.

He was assisted by Mrs. James Boylin, publicity chairman, who said the eye bank was started in 1947 and there are 26 throughout the United States.

She said vision can be restored to someone blinded by an accident or disease when a donor offers his eyes after death for corneal transplant. The question-and-answer period included facts on religious objections, poor vision and age limit, along with proper procedure when a donor dies.

Meehan screened a movie narrated by Walter Pidgeon, "A Boy With a Blindfold."

Miss Ethelyn Exley, president, conducted business. Miss Lois Duke read the benevolence report.

Miss Patricia McDowell, recently chosen "Miss Student Nurse," read her prize-winning essay, "This Is My Work — My Blessing." A senior student, she stressed what she has learned since entering the hospital. She was presented a certificate and gift.

Runnersup, Misses Kay Wright, Patricia Betteridge and Barbara Rodell, also received gifts.

New members received were Mrs. Sara Daniels and Miss Vera Martindale. Reinstated were Mrs. Kathryn Graham and Mrs. Dolly Willard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Clark reported on the American Nurses Foundation. The group is selling candy for this project. Contributions were given to the foundation and the Columbiana County Cancer Society.

Veteran Newsman Gives Recollections

Legislators Visit 'Death House'

(The following story combines the account of the visit of the House Judiciary Committee to Ohio Penitentiary's "death house" with the recollections of a veteran newsman of events which have transpired there. The recollections, of course, are personal and, therefore, more subjective than objective and should be regarded as such.)

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—I have just revisited a place where they kill people legally. It is the "death house" in Ohio Penitentiary.

I had been away—as far away as possible—from the little red-brick building for more than 10 years.

But I went back to hear the comments of members of the Ohio House Judiciary Committee as they inspected the ancient electric chair in which 311 murderers have died in the last 64 years. The committee is studying a series of bills which either would abolish or modify the death penalty.

I found myself thinking as the group passed throught the last gate into the inner compound of the great prison and immediately turned toward the death house:

"How many times have I passed through these gates? For how many purposes? With how many wardens? To see how many people die?"

But newsmen are not supposed to reflect on the past; they are covering today's news. So I trudged behind the group led by Corrections Commissioner M. C. Koblentz till we turned into the death house itself.

What the committee saw was a stark, antiseptic little room. It has a railing which separates the spectator section from the chair itself. The door from the compound leads into the spectator section. The door from the holding cell in which a condemned man spends the last three hours of his life leads only into the fenced-off section where the chair is located on a slightly raised platform.

The walls are covered with photographs of men who have walked into the room hale and hearty and have been carried out dead.

In the background I could hear Koblentz doing a careful, elementary explanation of how the chair works its deadly task.

Strangely, I remembered it all perfectly. It is nothing in the room itself that makes everything in it so memorable; it is what happens there.

Suddenly, I had the feeling that I was a kid again—a green, 21-year-old reporter of a quarter-century ago — who only a few hours previously had heard his city editor assign him to cover his first electrocution.

The assignment had been a shock. I had never even heard of the chap. But a bunch of clippings handed to me by the city editor told me all I needed to know—perhaps more than I wanted to know.

The condemned man was exactly my own age.

Koblentz was finished with his little talk and the questions were beginning.

Someone from the back of the committee huddle asked:

"Has any more merciful way been found to carry out a death sentence?"

Koblentz replied in the negative. But the questioner persisted:

"Is there any pain?"

Deputy Warden Ernie L. Maxwell replied: "We don't believe so."

I went back for a moment to relive the ordeal a quarter-century old. In those days, my experiences with alcohol had been limited by age and Prohibition.

I figured, however, that I had my emotional limits. I had a very sympathetic girl friend in those days, the girl to whom I now have been married 23 years. (Lucky for me, she still is sympathetic.)

So I stationed the girl friend at a strategic bar with firm instructions to have three drinks ready at 8:30. As it turned out, I didn't get there until 9. There were complications.

Through the reverie came the voice of Rep. Bernice MacKenzie, D-Stark, one of the two women present during the unusual visit to the death house.

"This chair is such an antique. Is it possible something more modern might be obtained?"

A prison engineer replied, "For the purpose for which it is intended, this chair is quite practical."

Back across the years.

It was like a belly blow to see the stocky fellow come through the door. He seemed so awfully young. He had pimples. He was pasty-faced from months in prison—and from fright.

I had seen men die before and I have seen too many since—almost any way you can mention. None of the ways is pretty.

But death by deliberate electrocution is in a class by itself along with the gallows and the gas chamber.

Even the firing squad has a certain dignity about it.

But when you lead a man into a little room and force him to sit down . . . that sitting down is the worst of it.

That is the final craven act.

This chap, though, had different ideas. He had religion, acquired in prison. He had persuaded himself through a last-ditch study of Scripture that he was immortal, that he had a mission which electricity could not snuff out.

For 23 minutes, the young fellow stood before the chair to expound his theory. His fanatic harangue was spurred, also, by one final wish:

He just wished to avoid the final debasement—the final act—of sitting down.

Through the entire 23 minutes, the spectators suffered. But finally, as with all things, it ended. He sat down.

Quickly the restraining irons were snapped on arms and legs. The electrodes were applied to leg and shaved head. Then the electricity—1,975 of volts of it—came coursing into the boy's body at the cane-tap signal of Warden James Woodard.

The already - unconscious body leaped forward, but the restraining irons held it. The mask on the face slipped a little askew. Galvalanized by the electrical shock, the body continued to strain against the irons.

I closed my eyes and kept them closed.

The odor was coming now, despite the efforts of exhaust fans.

Burning flesh has exactly the same odor as that of a horse's hoof when a blacksmith applies a red-hot shoe.

You can live a thousand years and not forget it. For days afterward, you continue to smell it. You can bathe, shampoo, change clothes—it is still in your nostrils.

You can steel yourself by asking yourself silently: "This fellow killed another man—what mercy did he show?"

The current was shut off. The dead body sagged. The surgeon gingerly approached the body with its rapidly bluing skin. He listened at the chest, then recited dully: "Sufficient electricity has passed through this man's body to cause death at 8:11 p.m."

That was all. We trooped out of the death house knowing full well that the boy, despite his harangue, was not coming back to life.

That was the last electrocution I ever actually saw

I have been assigned to report many others, but I never really saw another. My employers will forgive me, I hope.

I learned what I needed to know on the first one. When you see the warden start to tap his cane, close your eyes.

Those three drinks didn't stop the pain, but they helped. Then I wrote my story and a very understanding young lady sent me home in a taxi.

She seemed not to notice that I reeked of death.

Woman Hurt In Fall, Man Injured At Work

An 82-year-old Wellsville woman, hurt in a fall down porch steps, was admitted Tuesday night to City Hospital where a city potter was treated after a job mishap.

Mrs. Josephine Cain, 1761 Maple Ave., is in "fair" condition with a bruised forehead, possible fractures of the wrists and possible chest injuries. She fell down a neighbor's steps.

James Welch, 63, of Henry Ave. suffered lacerations of the scalp, forehead and left cheek in a fall over a platform while at work at the Homer Laughlin China Co.

Police Get Orders

CINCINNATI (AP)—From now on when Cincinnati patrolmen eat lunch, they'll have to carry their night sticks, too. Capt. Robert Roncker, training officer, said officers must also carry the stick when serving a summons and calling their station. He said patrolmen must take greater care searching prisoners because objects useful as weapons have turned up in cells.

Plate Case Costs $10

LISBON — Oral W. George, 36, of Chagrin Falls was fined $10 and costs Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald after he pleaded guilty of failing to register or obtain plates for his truck. Operating on dealer's plates, he was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Mitchell Gets Governor Bid

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—James P. Mitchell, newly nominated Republican candidate for governor of New Jersey, said today he will call on some old friends from the Eisenhower administration to boost his coming campaign.

Mitchell, former labor secretary, beat out two rivals in the Republican primary election Tuesday. In a victory statement he said he had promises of aid from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower; former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Richard J. Hughes, 51, a former judge who won the Democratic nomination with only token opposition, said that if Mitchell brings in national figures, he will consider calling on help from President Kennedy.

Returns from 4,379 of 4,394 districts in the primary election gave Mitchell 199,457 votes, State Sen. Walter H. Jones 156,933 and State Sen. Wayne Dumont Jr., 94,617.

Mitchell's victory over the veteran state legislators installed a new leadership at the head of New Jersey's Republican party, with Sen. Clifford P. Case, a liberal Republican, in command.

Jones ran with the backing of two-thirds of the GOP county organizations. Mitchell and Case said Jones represented an old-line leadership that had squandered the party's supremacy in the eight years since Democratic Gov. Robert B. Meyner was elected.

Meyner could not run for a third term. He leaves office next January.

Midland Post 481 To Entertain Vet

Midland American Legion Post 481 discussed plans Monday night for entertaining veterans Thursday at the Deshon Veterans Hospital in Butler.

About 20 will make the trip, and also distribute cigarettes. Woodrow Jones is chairman in charge. Women of the post's auxiliary, who visit the hospital, were honored there last night.

A report was given of the district meeting Saturday at Wampum at which John Mercer of Hookstown R. D. 1, Beaver County Legion essay contest winner, was presented $100 by Rep. Frank Clark and received plaques.

The post will sponsor a track meet May 17 at Lincoln High School. Tom Bryan is chairman.

William Coble, commander, presided. The next meeting will be May 1.

Chester Boy Injured When Bike Rams Car

A 6-year-old Chester boy received only minor injuries when his bicycle rolled into the side of a moving auto on Carolina Ave. at 1st St. Tuesday afternoon about 2:40, Chester Police Chief Harold Davis reported.

Harold Richard Clay, son of Mrs. Nancy Clay of W. Carolina Ave., was treated by a Chester physician. His bike hit the side of a 1957 sedan driven by Richard Leroy Staggers of New Cumberland R.D.

Witnesses told Chief Davis the boy rode from the sidewalk over the curb and into the side of the car.

Noted Singer Dies

MONTREAL (AP)—Mrs. Willie Lonegran, 57, a lyric soprano who toured Canada and the United States under the professional name Mme. Jeanne Desjardins, died Monday.

New Officers Selected At Taft School

John Parsons was elected president of the Taft Home and School Association at the final meeting of this term Monday night.

Other officers named for one-year terms were Dan Payne, vice president, and Mrs. Paul Davis, treasurer.

Mrs. J. B. Cartwright was re-elected secretary.

Asst. Supt. Paul Blair discussed "What To Expect In Reading" during the program.

Vocal and instrumental music selections were presented by fifth- and sixth-graders directed by Miss Eleanor Whitehill and George Schweizer, elementary music supervisors.

The attendance banner was won by the sixth grade. Devotions were led by the Rev. Lyle Euler, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

The next meeting will be in October.

County Medical Group Hears Canton Doctor

About 30 attended a meeting of the Columbiana County Medical Society Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon at which Dr. George Hackett of Canton was speaker.

Dr. Hackett, using slides, discussed treatment of back pains. Plans were announced for the annual joint meeting with dentists and attorneys May 10 at the East Liverpool Country Club — an all-day event with a medical program in the evening.

Knox Group To Meet

LISBON — A program on "Spring Meal Planning" will be presented when the Knox Township Home Demonstration Group meets Tuesday from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Ohio Edison Co. in Alliance. The utility's home economist will present the program, according to Miss Julia Shank, county extension agent in home economics.

Haught Elected Head Of Chester FTA Unit

William Haught, Chester High School junior, was elected president of the Future Teachers of America Chapter of the school at the annual banquet Tuesday night at the Travelers Hotel.

He succeeds Connie Dotson, who presided at the event attended by 25.

Miss Goldye Timberlake of Weirton, co-supervisor of physical education, spoke on "Teaching as a Profession." Mr. and Mrs. R. M. McFarland and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jackson were guests.

Susan Miller was in charge of arrangements. Jackson is faculty sponsor.

The nation's maintenance and repair bill for buildings of all kinds has grown to around $20 billion a year.

Wellsville Step Delayed

Council Tables Lottery Penalty

Wellsville Council Tuesday night again tabled legislation providing specific penalties for possession of numbers and lottery slips. This was the third such action.

The legislation would amend the city code and provide stiffer fines and set a jail sentence for possession of numbers slips. At present the fine is $50.

Councilman Clarence Cartwright suggested delaying the legislation until it could be learned what revisions were being made in the state code concerning gambling so there would be no conflict.

Councilman William Stroble said the city's jail facilities were not adequate to handle prisoners. He said the situation should be corrected before any action be taken.

—:—

COUNCILMAN Wilmer Ralston said he doesn't believe the jail should be used as a reason for delaying action. He said the jail is one of the oldest in Columbiana County but that he had inspected the facilities Monday night and found the cells are probably the cleanest in the county.

Councilman Donald Miller remarked, "we are not running a hotel. If they are bad enough to be placed there, it is their worry."

Councilman Robert Taggart, serving as president pro-tem in the absence of Mrs. Mary Rahter, said gambling is a local problem and each city should do something about it.

Councilman Aguin Bowling read legislation which covers "known gamblers" and sets the fine and jail sentence. He also read legislation covering lotteries.

Council then referred the legislation back to Solicitor William Bush for study to determine if there is a conflict with present laws on the books.

Legislation setting Daylight Saving Time for the summer months was adopted.

"FAST" TIME was set from April 30 at 2 a. m. to Oct. 29 at 2 a. m., inclusive. Council will continue meeting at 7:30 p. m. on the second and third Tuesday.

Third and final readings were given two resolutions. One acknowledges receipt of $500 from Minnie Russell for the perpetual care of a lot at Springhill Cemetery and the other authorizes the treasurer to purchase a $1,000 series H savings bond with cemetery endowment funds.

George Bloomgren, East Liverpool engineer, submitted a bid of $160 to survey Arcadia Addition. It was referred to the finance committee. Council has announced plans to open streets in the section, which is within the city limits.

Council agreed to replace one of the parking meters removed from an area in front of the Post Office on Main St. Three meters had been removed to accommodate mail trucks.

STROBLE AGAIN commented he would like to see a section of ground along lower Main St. improved and beautified. Safety-service Director William Robinson suggested a meeting be set up with the property committee to go over plans for the project with him.

Councilman Paul Nelson remarked he and Taggart had checked the city dump off Route 39 on a complaint from residents of Yellow Creek Township. He said another meeting will be held with Robinson to work out some corrective measures. Residents complained the dump is not covered properly and is continually burning.

BOWLING reported the Ohio River has backed up into Little Yellow Creek at the upper end of town and deepend it considerably. He said it was reported children were playing along Ott St., which lies below the floodwall along the creek. He suggested a gate be erected to keep the children away from this section.

Harold Sneddon, manager of the Ohio Valley Gas Co., reported on the installation of new lines to serve the Freeport Sulphr Co. on the Ohio River below 25th St.

He said the project will cost between $30,000 and $35,000. One line will be run from the station at Main and 18th Sts. down 18th to Commerce St., tying in with a line which parallels Nicholson Field. A line will be replaced on Danbury Ave. to serve the McLain Refractories plant. A new line will run from Danbury and 22nd St. to Clark Ave. and then under the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. tracks.

IT WAS reported by O. B. Kessel, sanitary inspector for the Board of Health, the area of the former Whitacre Apartments at 3rd St. had been leveled and cleared. Council had been complaining of the health hazard.

Police Chief John Hephner outlined the work schedule of his men on request of Council. He said the work is piling up in the department, pointing out Wellsville has been unfortunate to have a rise in robberies, breaking and enterings and other crimes. He said it is the same all over the nation. He also pointed out how much time is spent by officers appearing in the various courts at Lisbon to press charges.

Hephner also said that Kelly Smith of Chester, who complained of the condition of the city jail and his treatment on arrest recently in a letter to the editor in the Review, had been in jail previously as had his two companions.

HEPHNER SAID it is not necessary for an officer to be in uniform to make an arrest, another complaint of Smith. He said all the officers carry identification cards with them. Smith also personally knew both officers involved, he said.

Various aspects of the case were discussed to clear the matter publicly. Hephner also said mattresses could not be kept on the bunks in jail as drunks would set fire to them. He said the cells are sprayed monthly to kill bugs.

Frank Moore, owner of the Safeway Cab Co., was questioned concerning oral complaints received by Council members on the operation of his business.

Moore said his cabs are inspected when they are serviced at a garage. He also said the same rates are charged all customers and reported he has ordered a new cab.

Bloomgren asked that a caucus session be set with Council to discuss his survey of the sewage problem on Danbury Ave. and other sections of the lower end of town. During hard rains the sewers back up into cellars of the area.

BLOOMGREN said the pump setting has been changed to clear water earlier from a manhole at 21st St. This may correct the situation, he said.

It was reported that a special session of Council was held Monday night when it was decided to make an agreement with a consulting engineer to represent the city in negotiations with the State Highway Department on the proposed relocation of Route 7 through the city.

According to the minutes, Council agreed at the special session to have the Green Engineering Co. of Sewickley represent the city on the highway relocation project.

THE FIRM will present an agreement to Council and which will not be binding to the city, Stroble, street and light chairman, explained before the meeting.

Council had requested the Board of Control to hire an engineer but no action had been taken to date. Council's request was that the engineer be obtained at no cost to the city.

Council chamber last night filled to overflowing by several residents and members of an American Problems class at Wellsville High School.

Mayor William J. Shoub and Council commended the students and the residents for their interest in city affairs.

The Rev. Arden Beck gave the opening prayer and the Rev. James Sanko the closing prayer.

Wellsville Children's Clinic Set Thursday

The third and final round of a pre-school clinic to provide the necessary immunization shots for children entering the first grade of school in September will be held Thursday from 9 to 11 a. m. at Wellsville MacDonald School.

The clinic covers all children in the Wellsville School District. Mrs. Jean Tipton, school nurse, said some 94 children are expected to receive their final round of shots.

Dr. Gustave Peller, city health commissioner, is in charge.

Prince Charles, born Nov. 14, 1948, is the present heir to the British throne.

Women's Club Plans Meeting At Industry

Miss Marie Golsong of Midland will speak on "Home Decorating" at the meeting of the Industry Borough Woman's Club Thursday night at 8 in the Ohio View School.

Mrs. Gasper Porto will be hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. Clarence Wendell and Mrs. Edward Kay.

Mrs. William Chapman, president, will preside for business.

Angler Finds Body

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—A fisherman Tuesday found the body of James Combs, 25, of Hamilton, who drowned in the Miami River trying to rescue a youngster. Combs, father of two small children, drowned March 15 trying to save a 3-year-old who, with two others in a boat, had been pitched into the river when the craft went over a dam. Combs' body was found 30 miles downriver near Lawrenceburg, Ind.

New Pattern Of Unity?

Nixon Invited To Confer With Republican Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans gave some signs today they are beginning to pick up the pieces of their presidential election defeat and fit together a new pattern of unity.

An invitation for Richard M. Nixon to confer with GOP congressional leaders Thursday was interpreted generally as signaling a decline in criticism by many Republicans of the former vice president for losing the election.

Senate liberals expressed satisfaction over a pledge their views will be heard before the weekly "Ev and Charlie" television program is put on by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

Chairman Thruston B. Morton told Republican National Committee members they are going to get the opportunity to pick their own head man as his successor. The committee dutifully elected the men former President Dwight D. Eisenhower tapped when he occupied the White House.

Morton said he expects the party's executive committee, meeting here Friday, to come up with a formula for a nominating committee of sorts. The chairman has declined to name such a committee himself or to recommend a successor.

Because some committee members have been grumbling against any effort to handpick a new chairman, the executive group may set up a committee on a geographical basis to list several names that might be voted on at a June 2 session of the national committee.

In this connection, three new names have been tossed into the speculation over Morton's successor. They are Walter Williams, former undersecretary of commerce and a 1952 Citizens-for-Eisenhower official; former Secretary of Interior Fred Seaton, and former Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

However, Rep. William E. Miller of New York, chairman of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, still is looked upon as the most likely choice to succeed Morton.

Cleveland Due First Ore Of Lake Season

fish Bay, a 730-foot bulk freighter making her maiden voyage, was expected to sail into Cleveland today with the first iron ore cargo of the new season.

The vessel, one of the largest of the lakers able to use the St. Lawrence Seaway, is carrying a load of iron ore pellets from Picton, Ont., destined for the Bethlehem Steel Corp. plant at Johnstown, Pa.

Vote Opposite

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young, Ohio Democrats, voted opposite Tuesday in a roll call which defeated a Republican substitute for President Kennedy's minimum wage blil, 34-63. Lausche voted for the substitute, and Young against.

House Unit Asks Passage Of Bill On Expositions

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Passage of a bill creating an Expositions Commission to run the State Fair and fairgrounds has been recommended by the House Government Operations Committee.

It provides for a 15 - member commission, appointed by the governor for six-year terms, and a full-time general manager who could hire three assistants. The top salary for the manager originally was set in the bill at $18,000 annually, but amendments trimmed this to $13,500.

The fair manager presently earns between $8,600 and $10,400.

If passed, the bill would not affect this summer's fair. There has been criticism because of the annual fair's losing money in recent years and because some feel the north Columbus fairgrounds is not fully utilized.

The battle over the future of the Ohio Scholarship Fund set up by the 1959 legislature continues. As the result of a 5-5 tie vote, a bill by Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, was not recommended out of the Senate Education Committee Tuesday night.

Another bill, by Sen. Ed Witmer, D-Stark, which would allow direct state appropriations into the scholarship fund, instead of on a one-three ratio to privately raised funds as at present, got the support of four witnesses at its first hearing. Opponents will be heard later.

Speeding Car Rams Tree Killing 2 Men

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Sheriff's deputies said the car in which two North Madison men were killed was going about 100 miles an hour when it smacked into a big tree three miles east of here Tuesday.

The body of William H. Walker, 29, was found in the trunk. Lake County sheriff's deputies said the impact had hurled Walker from the front seat and through the rear seat cushions.

Robert R. Billson, 29, was thrown 52 feet from the impact point.

Deputy Sheriff Tal Divan, who chased the speeding car, said the wrecked car's speedometer had stuck at 102 m.p.h.

U.S. Naval Base In Cuba Placed On Watchful Alert

GUANTANAMO BAY, Cuba (AP)—This big U.S. naval base on the eastern tip of Cuba is on a watchful, round-the-clock alert, but for the most part the fighting going on beyond the fence might as well be on another continent.

All is quiet in the immediate vicinity. The usual peace of the base is marred only by a slight increase in tension because of the stepped-up precautions and the lack of news of the invasion by anti-Castro rebels.

Rear Adm. E. J. O'Donnell, base commander, said in an interview that his operations office is operating around-the-clock; that a constant radar watch is being maintained and that fighters on the runways are ready to scramble skyward in less than five minutes.

O'Donnell said he also has on call 10 or 11 destroyers that can pump out 5-inch shells at the rate of one a second from twin mounts.

"We have an enormous amount of firepower here," the admiral said.

While he did not say how close to this base the destroyers are roaming—they are obviously not in the harbor—he left no doubt they are close.

O'Donnell emphatically denied Cuban charges that some of the rebel invaders had come from this base.

Asked if American radar crews had discovered any signs of high-performance aircraft in the Cuba skies, the admiral said they had not.

There have been reports that the Cuban air force has at least seven Soviet-built jet fighters. If there are any Mig's around, O'Donnell said, they have not flown over the eastern end of the island.

Union Official Hails Contract With Firestone

CLEVELAND (AP)—A union official termed the precedent-setting Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. contract agreement "a progressive agreement that will promote stability and long-range improvement in labor relations."

The agreement, reached Tuesday, is the first in the industry to wrap up wages and working conditions in a two - year contract. Usually wages are negotiated separately under a reopener clause in the master contract.

The contract includes separate wage agreements for tire and non-tire production workers — also something new in industry bargaining.

And it includes special provisions relating to job protection where automation is involved.

It provides hourly pay increases of 14½ cents for tire plant workers and 7½ cents hourly for workers in industrial products plants. Some 16,000 employes are covered at tire plants in Akron, Des Moines, Los Angeles, Memphis and Pottstown, Pa., and industrial products plants at Fall River, Mass., and New Castle and Noblesville, Ind.,

Average straight - time hourly earnings on a companywide basis are given by the union as $3.01.

Youth Who Killed Father Due For Parole

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 19-year-old Beachwood youth who killed his father and wounded his mother 14 months ago is due for parole from the reformatory at Mansfield May 17. Scott Forbush shot his father, Dallas H. Forbush, 57, an insurance executive, and wounded his mother, Marjorie, in their home Feb. 29, 1960.

The Ohio Pardon and Parole Commission Tuesday granted the parole to the youth, who has been undergoing psychiatric treatment. Forbush had pleaded guilty to manslaughter and was serving a 1-to-20 year sentence.

Lorain Man Dies After Collapsing At Statehouse

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Homer Fletcher, about 60, of Lorain was stricken in the chamber of the Ohio House of Representatives Tuesday night and died about an hour later in Grant Hospital.

He was the third person to be smitten fatally in the House chamber in recent months.

Fletcher handled automobile registrations in the Lorain County clerk of courts office at Elyria.

Rep. Maurice C. Brown, D-Lorain, said he believed Fletcher was in Columbus to attend the meeting of the state court clerks organization Thursday and Friday.

Fletcher became ill just after he entered the chamber. An emergency squad rushed him to the hospital, and he died about 55 minutes after he was admitted.

Two state representatives — Ralph L. Humphrey, R - Ashtabula, and Joseph E. Lady, R-Hardin—were stricken fatally in the chamber within the last two months.

Buenos Aires is the largest city in South America.

Traffic Mishap Fatal To Youth On Scooter

BELLEVUE, Ohio (AP) — Lon Francis, 17, was injured fatally under the wheels of an automobile after his motor scooter collided with a state highway patrolman's station wagon Tuesday night.

Police said the scooter struck the vehicle of Highway Patrolman Leo A. Pietro, who was preparing to make a turn at an intersection. Francis was thrown under a car driven by Bernard Krinke, principal of the Ridge, McKim and Ellis Elementary schools. Lon, a senior, had been chosen to represent Bellevue High School in physics in the state final scholarship competition at Heidelberg College May 6.

Transportation Systems Tied In To Development

"The greatest opportunity for economic development lies with communities that can develop and offer modes of transportation, such as railroads, highways and waterways," Bud Donley of Pittsburgh told the Rotary Club Tuesday.

A son of the operator of the Charles Donley Agency of Pittsburgh, consultants in traffic problems, Donley cited East Liverpool's transportation assets as including its short distance from important turnpikes and its nearness to the Ohio River and railroads.

"But the panacea is not as it seems," he pointed out. "There are subtle deficiencies that should be the object of a long-range program of development if you wish to prosper," he told the club members at their meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

His father, who has been associated with the United States Potters Association's transportation problems for almost 30 years, remarked that distribution is one of the biggest problems in the industry.

The younger Donley, past International president of Kiwanis, said that river trans-shipment has shown phenemonal growth in the last five years. He pointed to 15 public river terminals within 30 miles of Pittsburgh as a sign of trans-shipment progress.

But the development of trans-shipment facilities isn't all that's needed, he commented. Plans to inherit the water transportation are also needed, he said.

Donley said all three modes of transportation—rail, highway and water — are learning toward specialized equipment and simplification of handling in attempts to diversify their services.

In the past eight years, there have been freight reductions noted in transportation of primary pottery industry products — clay, feldspar and sand. Potteries are using power equipment to reach efficiency and long-range programs of keeping costs down, he said.

"Transportation is a community problem. The will of a community to diversify its economic pattern is indisputable," Donley said in noting East Liverpool's task.

He said that transporation rates third behind labor and raw materials in the cost of operating businesses.

The Donley agency has functioned for many years to see that pottery gets transportation at the lowest possible costs, he said. He added that he believed this has been achieved over the years, especially in shipment of raw materials.

The father-son team was introduced by William Christopher, program chairman.

George Hargraves, president, read an invitation from the IBOP for members to attend an open house and dedication of the union's new headquarters May 6 from 2 to 5 p. m.

Cerebral Palsy Group To Hold Open House

Further plans for open house April 30 were discussed at the meeting of the Columbiana County Affiliate of the United Cerebral Palsy Association Tuesday night in the clinic rooms of the Mary Patterson Memorial.

Richard Brian, chairman, gave reports on the progress.

Lawrence Zollinger, president, conducted business. It was reported members of the high school Key Club recently completed more painting in the rooms.

Miss Kathleen Potter, executive secretary, read the minutes and correspondence.

Officers will be elected at the meeting May 16.

Palestine Firm Low On Coal Supply Bids

EAST PALESTINE — The Ferris Coal Co. of East Palestine, one of five bidders on supplying coal for the city power plant and other facilities, made a low offer of $3.85 per ton delivered when bids were opened Tuesday by the Board of Control.

John Lipp of East Palestine, current contract holder at $4 a ton, offered a high bid of $4.50. Other bidders were Ambrosia Coal of Edinburg, Pa., $3.89; Harry Bush of East Palestine, $3.90, and Francis Coal Co. of Darlington, $3.94.

Cost of coal had dropped 30 cents in the past two years, city officials said. Some 70 tons a day is required. The contract will be awarded later.

South Side Athletic Group Authorizes Uniform Buying

Purchase of uniforms for teams in the South Side Hot Stove League was authorized at a meeting of the South Side Athletic Club Tuesday evening. Names were also selected for teams.

Daniel Wright, secretary, reported that a motion was made for all uniforms to be purchased from the Burbick Hardware Co. in East Liverpool and that all orders must be placed before Saturday

He said the club decided to use national league names and colors for uniforms. A drawing for names was held. The teams will be known as the Hookstown Dodgers, Shippingport Pirates, Hanover Reds, Frankfort Springs Braves, Georgetown Giants and Lawrenceville Cardinals.

A list of managers was completed with the addition of Donald Shaw Jr. of Lawrenceville and Stanley Zdybicki of Frankfort Springs, both for 8-12 age groups. Some 194 boys have enrolled for the teams. Some 175 were expected.

Robert Hamilton was appointed as an additional director for Frankfort Springs with Pete Cain alternate. A letter of resignation from Frank Luther, Hookstown director, was read and accepted. Charles Wright was appointed to fill the vacancy with Paul Verzella as alternate.

A representative of the Stanley Products Co. attended and presented a fund-raising project for club approval.

District directors and managers were appointed as the rules committee for each district and they must submit ground rules to the club by the next meeting May 2 at 8 p. m. at American Legion Post 952 near Hookstown.

All district directors attended the meeting held at the post home with Verzella, vice president, in charge.

Mayor And Director To Be Dinner Guests

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver will be guests at a banquet Thursday night at Youngstown at which a new regional association of public employes will install its first officers.

They will attend the 6:30 affair at the Tod Hotel arranged by Northeast Ohio Public Employes District Council 18, made up of locals in Columbiana, Mahoning and Trumbull Counties.

Others attending will be Dan Bowers, president of the city local, and E. B. Laughlin, Wayne Shaw, Francis Cubberly and Floyd E. Tice, representatives to the council from the local union. The city union is Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes.

The Above is Only a Partial Listing—We Have Hundreds More to Choose From!

We have never before made an offer to the public like this one . . . and perhaps never will again. But we honestly want the hundreds of folks who will be buying diamonds between now and September to learn the whole truth about diamond pricing. And the most effective way we know to get across this important story is to tell it to them personally. So take advantage of the really worthwhile savings we're offering on one of America's finest diamond collections. Learn why there is such a tremendous difference in the price of diamonds that are exactly the same size. Obviously we cannot extend this special "Education Offer" beyond a few days . . . so come in right away!

Police Nab Suspect In Downtown Chase

A man wanted for questioning in connection with a case of indecent exposure this morning on Lincoln Ave. was nabbed in a police chase after he slugged an officer who had placed him under arrest, jumped out of a cruiser and fled.

Patrolman William A. Devon took the suspect into custody shortly after police received a telephoned complaint about 8:30 that a man was exposing himself on Lincoln Ave. But the suspect struck the officer and jumped out of the police car and fled.

Patrolman Charles A. Winters joined the chase in another cruiser. The two patrolmen pursued the suspect on Lincoln Ave. to Smith St. and then into Green Ln., where he was taken into custody. The man was under interrogation late this morning. No formal charges had been filed.

Former City Worker Fined $50 For Fraud

A man accused of furnishing a false address on an application for a Civil Service Commission job exam was fined $50 and costs today in Municipal Court when he withdrew a former plea of innocent and pleaded guilty.

Judge Samuel M. Chertoff imposed the fine on Floyd Henry Beatty, who was accused of listing a Lisbon St. address on the test application, although he actually resided at Apples Corners in Madison Township. Beatty was represented by Atty. John B. McDonald.

Beatty, formerly employed as a laborer at the sewage treatment plant, competed in an exam for the post of plant operator. P. K. Calhoon, clerk of the Civil Service Commission, filed the misdemeanor fraud charge against Beatty.

Light Frost Seen; Snow Fell In 1901

The district may have scattered light frost tonight, with winter hanging on, but that is nothing compared to the damaging rain, snow and flood which hit the area 60 years ago in the worst April storm in local history.

Twenty inches of snow and over three inches of rain fell on the area, downing electric wires, ruining orchards, halting trains and later bringing a 34-foot flood crest in the Ohio River.

The snow and frozen slush broke tree limbs and trapped sheep and cattle in the fields and left a 4-inch layer of snow-slop in downtown East Liverpool, stalling business.

Man Nabbed In Killing 2, Wounding 2

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP)—An all night search for Cleo Porter, sought in connection with the slaying of two members of his family and the wounding of two other persons, ended with his capture today.

Police said Porter was picked up about a block from his home. Officers said he killed his wife, fatally shot her father and wounded two neighbors with shotgun blasts following a family argument Tuesday night.

Mrs. Judith Porter, 23, was slain at a neighbor's house, where she had run for safety carrying her two-year-old baby.

Warren Driver Cited After Route 7 Mishap

William Davis, 39, of Warren was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon Tuesday after his car struck the rear of another on Route 7 at the intersection with Route 30.

Officers said Davis' car rammed the rear of one operated by James Schamp, 50, of Lisbon R. D. 3, causing minor damage. Davis was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

City Hospital Union Will Meet Thursday

Senate Okay Expected For Roads Funds

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A bill to give local governments $15 million more a year for road work was likely to pass the Ohio Senate today with votes to spare.

But Gov. Michael V. DiSalle is expected to veto it. And those predicting its passage today admit that the Republican majority may have a tough time finding enough additional Democratic votes to override a veto.

The bill has been the subject of strong statements, particularly from the Ohio Department of Highways. If the bill becomes law, $15 million now withheld annually from motor vehicle license fees to help operate the Highway Safety Department would be distributed to local government like the rest of the revenue from the license tag source.

As a result, the safety department would be partially operated through money received from the gasoline tax. This is money the Highway Department presently is using and doesn't want to surrender.

Twenty votes are needed to pass a bill in the Senate and the road funds measure was expected to get 26 or 27 ayes. To override a veto, however, 23 votes are needed, and the 20 Republican senators can't be sure that at least three Democrats will oppose the Democratic governor.

The bill passed the House earlier, 109-25, and even though death of two GOP representatives has reduced the Republican margin there to 82-55, finding the necessary 84 votes to override might not be so much of a problem.

While senators are considering this and two other bills, the House has seven scheduled, including one to combat discrimination in restaurants or other public accommodations because of color, race, religion or national origin.

Backers and opponents were ready to debate on another bill up for a House vote. It would allow small loan firms to lend up to $2,000 instead of the $1,000 present maximum. Other changes would increase earnings per $100 loaned.

In view of the number of bills to be considered in the House, it's planned to put off until Thursday a vote on three bills to boost penalties for gambling. The measures are aimed especially at the numbers racket and organized sports betting pools.

The lid imposed March 16 on introduction of new bills in the house was lifted briefly Tuesday to admit bill No. 1119. This calls for a $6.25 million appropriation to replenish state poor relief funds and fill the gap between now and June 30, end of the two-year period for which the 1959 legislature had appropriated money.

Gov. DiSalle says the money ran out because of the unexpectedly severe economic downturn in Ohio and elsewhere. The bill was sent to the legislature more than five weeks ago by Finance Director James H. Maloon. It originally called for $7.5 million, but the controlling board released $1.25 million when the fund threatened to go dry earlier this month.

The House Finance Committee planned to begin hearings on the bill today.

In other action Tuesday the House passed and sent to the Senate bills to:

Regulate sale of drugs said to be too dangerous for self-administration, by licensing retailers and registering wholesalers.

Put secretary of state candidates in third position on the ballot and attorney general candidates sixth and last, restoring the order of the ballot before the Democrat-controlled 1959 legislature changed it to attorney general third and secretary of state fifth.

Provide a maximum fine of $100 for putting posters on utility poles and other structures along highway right-of-way outside communities.

End the requirement that an appointed county commissioner must belong to the same political party as his predecessor.

Repeal obsolete laws dealing with admission of paying visitors to the penitentiary and permitting no officer except the warden to be a resident.

The House also completed passage of an emergency bill which lets municipalities finance multi-level parking garages from assessments on benefiting property nearby. Backers said that the clarification was needed before investment house would handle bonds issued to finance such municipal structures.

Mansfield, for example, is waiting for the governor's signature on the bill so that it can exercise options, expiring May 1, on land for a half-million dollar garage to handle 300 cars.

Among the bills passed by the Senate was a measure to increase the term of the state superintendent of banks, who heads a division in the Ohio Commerce Department, from two to four years.

Two more bills were introduced in the Senate, which observes no introduction deadline. They bring the total introduced in both houses this session to 1,658, about one in four of which will become law.

Driver Receives Plastic Surgery

A Wellsville man involved in a two-car crash which claimed the lives of three members of a Carrollton family underwent plastic surgery Tuesday at Akron General Hospital.

Paul E. Orr, 25, of 1201 Commerce St. received facial injuries in the collision April 11 on Route 39 four and a half miles west of Carrollton. He first was taken to Union Hospital at Dover but later was transferred to Akron for surgery.

Orr faces a charge of second degree manslaughter in the deaths of a Carrollton man and his parents-in-law.

The Carroll County sheriff's office said Orr's vehicle was being operated recklessly, at excessive speed and was left of center when it rammed the other vehicle head-on.

Annual Spring Event

Wellsville Concert Set On Friday

The Wellsville High School band will present its annual spring concert Friday night at 8 at the Beacom Memorial gymnasium.

They are, left to right, Paul Householder, with the percussion instruments he will play in "The Worried Drummer," and Darrell Stover, Don Montgomery and Sandra Hermand, cornet featured in "Trumpets Wild."

Miss Hermand is a senior and Stover and Montgomery are freshmen.

Koenig said no admission will be charged but that anyone interested in aiding in band projects may purchase a ticket from members.

The concert by the 75-member group will feature light, popular, and classical music with emphasis on each section of the band.

Letter awards will be presented 30 members while its five seniors will be given class pins.

The main award of the evening will be the John Philip Sousa Band award given annually to the outstanding senior band member. The award is based on musicianship, reliability and leadership.

Selections will include "Manhatten Beach March" (Sousa), "Symphonette for Band" (Erickson), "Trumpets Wild" (Walters), "Vilia" (Lehar), "Joshua" (Yoder), "Clarinet Escapade" (Ward), "Here Comes the Band March" (Willcocks), "Praeludium for Band" (Coravas), "Bill Bailey" (Van Anken), "The Worried Drummer" (Schreiner), "Second Symphony for Band" (Erickson) and "Totem Pole March" (Osterling).

Midland Pastor Announces 10th Fund Campaign

The 10th Pittsburgh Diocesan Development Fund drive will be held May 14-28, Fr. Francis E. Paul, pastor of the Midland Presentation Catholic Church, announced.

As in the past, the drive will be conducted on a house-to-house basis. Parish priests will direct the soliciting by men and women of each parish.

Funds will be used for new facilities of a charitable nature and to enable the diocese to expand some of the programs which now serve residents of the six counties of the diocese.

The amount gathered last year was about $600,000.

The Pittsburgh Diocese will be host to about 3,000 delegates representing a million Catholic men in the nation at the biennial convention of the National Council of Catholic Men May 4-7 at the Pittsburgh Hilton.

Midland parishioners who wish to attend the family seminar April 30 from 1:15 to 5:30 p. m. at St. Mary Church in Beaver Falls are to make reservations by calling MI 3-6986.

From the standpoint of receipts, the tourist trade is Switzerland's greatest industry.

Students Protest Alleged Action In Cuba By U.S.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A group of college students protesting alleged United States interference in the Cuban counterrevolution picketed the Ohio Statehouse Tuesday.

The demonstrators, mostly from Antioch College at Yellow Springs, marched in front of the capitol for several hours, carrying pro-Castro signs and placards.

The pickets, numbering about 50, included about 10 students from Ohio State University. Spokesmen said the demonstration was done on the spur of the moment and not organized.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle told newsmen the demonstrators made no effort to contact him. He said he would do nothing about the demonstration, but remarked:

"I hope things keep going badly for Castro."

The students distributed a two-page mimeographed statement signed "Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Antioch Chapter." A spokesman said this is a nationally organized group headquarters in New York.

No violence occurred as about 100 spectators, many of them state officials and office workers, watched the demonstration. Three youthful passers - by made anti-Castro signs and picketed the pickets.

U.S. Fires Sodium Pellets In Wind Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration fired a sodium cloud 102 miles into the air above the Atlantic Ocean today in an effort to measure wind conditions.

The shot at 4:36 a.m. from the Wallops Island, Va., test center was made by a two-stage Nike-Asp rocket carrying aluminum thermite and sodium pellets.

The sodium cloud was ejected at 33 miles and floated a bright orange-yellow cloud up to 102 miles in the air.

NASA officials said the shot went perfectly, although the cloud was visibile only about 10 minutes. Previous sodium clouds have lasted 15 minutes or more and some have been visible for hundreds of miles along the Atlantic seaboard.

Jury Deliberations Due In Robbery Case

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—The jury was expected to begin deliberations today in the case against Ronnie Carrabia, of Struthers, charged with participating in the $20,000 armed robbery of the Griswold Co. store here in 1956.

Prosecution and defense rested their cases Tuesday in Trumbull County Common Pleas Court.

Richard Stanley, a former Warrent policeman and a paroled burglar, testified that Harold Huff, a Warren patrolman for 13 years, was an accomplice with himself, Carrabia and four other men in the robbery.

County Board Told Of Plans On Workshop

LISBON — Plans for a reading workshop to improve the Columbiana County school reading program were outlined by Lorin Ruff, county elementary consultant, at a meeting of the county Board of Education Tuesday night.

Ruff reported on the reading program and discussed textbooks for reading. He said a workshop will be held in the next school term to better the general reading program and aid in techniques for teaching reading.

In other business, the board approved plans to notify State Rep. Warren Bettis and Rep. Clarence Wetzel of the board's opposition to proposed House Bill 119 which takes from the State Board of Education the authority to rule on transfer of territory for school purposes following municipal annexation.

Mrs. Marilyn Solak, county high school consultant, reported on adoption of history books for 10th grades in county schools, and how the texts will be utilized.

County Supt. James McBride and Ruff reported on attending the American Association of School Administrators convention at Philadelphia in March.

Supt. McBride described the development of two-year community colleges in other states as reported at the convention.

He said Ohio is "dragging its feet" in founding such colleges because of pressures from universities which believe financial appropriations will be cut if community colleges are begun.

Hubert Lawrence, county school psychologist, reported on a recent visit of Dr. S. J. Bonham, chief psychologist for the State Education Department, who had favorable comment on the county program.

Letters were read from Sen. Stephen Young and Rep. Wayne L. Hays, answering a board letter which outlined its opposition to the proposed federal aid to education program.

Bills totaling $411 were paid. Next meeting is May 16.

9 Register Here For Idle Benefits

Starting its second week of accepting claims for extended unemployment benefits under the federal law, nine persons registered for the first time Monday and Tuesday at the Ohio State Employment Service office.

Another 38 filed a continuing claim for the extended benefits, Harry L. Dinsmore, manager, reported.

A total of 117 claims for benefits under the extension program were received last week, Dinsmore said.

Meanwhile, the total number of regular claims filed last week showed a slight decline from the previous week, he noted.

A total of 962 claims were processed last week, a drop of 21 from the 983 received for the week ending April 8, Dinsmore continued.

New claims totaled 122, a decrease of 44 from 166 in the previous week, while continued claims reached 840, up 23 from the 817 earlier, he said.

Lions Club At Midland To Hold Nominations

Officers to be elected in May will be nominated at a meeting of the Midland Lions Club Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at Deramo's Restaurant.

The committee includes Paul Adams, chairman, Wayne Bolland and Truman Rodfong. They will report on a slate and there will be nominations from the floor.

Al Bahm will be program chairman. Albert Masters, president, said Anthony Caputo, director of the Beaver Valley Opera Society, will outline plans for the club's presentation of the operetta, "Mikado," May 2 at Lincoln High School auditorium.

Calcutta PTA Carnival Includes Record Hop

A record hop and a magic show will be featured at a carnival to be held Saturday night at Calcutta School by the Parent-Teacher Association.

A dinner will be served at 5, followed by the carnival at 6. The record hop will be held from 8 to 11.

Also scheduled are an auction, fish pond, plays, musical shows, dancing show and movies.

Walter Lineberry is president. Proceeds will be for PTA work.

Wellsville Methodist Men To Give Dinner

Methodist Men of the Wellsville First Methodist Church will sponsor a congregational dinner Thursday at 6:30 p. m.

School Supt. S. E. Daw and Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara will be in charge of the program.

Meat, coffee and dessert will be furnished by the men's group while those attending the social affair must take bread, butter and table service.

180 Will Receive Certificates For Church Training

Certificates in leadership training will be presented to about 180 at the final session of the four-day training Friday night at the Oakland Free Methodist Church.

The training began Monday for Sunday School leaders of the Rochester District and includes three courses.

The Rev. S. H. Estel, host pastor, is serving as dean and will make the presentations.

Courses are being taught by the Rev. R. L. Page, district superintendent; the Rev. C. H. Canon of Weirton, former pastor of the host church, and Joseph Douglas of New Brighton.

About 20 churches of the district are being represented.

Tennessee has fewer marriages per capita than any other state.

PTA Names Committees

Nominating and auditing committees were named at a meeting of the Wellsville McKinley Parent-Teacher Association Monday night.

Mrs. Ann Powell, Mrs. Eileen Bush and Mrs. Geneva Gates were appointed to present a slate of officers for the election and installation at the meeting May 15. A coverdish dinner will be served.

The auditing committee includes Pat Poynter, Mrs. Esther Williams and Mrs. Jean Hale.

Mrs. Dorothy Bunfill, president, conducted business. A donation was made to Mrs. Louise Lawton, elementary music supervisor, toward expenses of the spring music festival.

The program was presented by second, third and fourth grade students. The second and third grades, under the direction of Mrs. Edythe Elkins, gave readings and presented science experiments. Mrs. Elkins' husband, Kenneth Elkins, assisted with the experiments.

Miss Isa Anderson's fourth grade sang and presented a play. The attendance banner was won by the second and third grades.

A 50-star flag was presented to the school by the auxiliary of American Legion Post 70.

Refreshments were served.

Bois Elected Head Of Waterford PTO

NEW WATERFORD — Fred Boies was elected president of the New Waterford Parent - Teacher Organization at a meeting Monday night, succeeding Floyd Patton.

Others named were Joseph Papania, vice president; Mrs. Barbara Gibson, secretary, and Mrs. Shirley Custer, treasurer.

Club Plans Auction

EAST PALESTINE — Plans for the annual Kiwanis Club auction May 10 at City Park were completed at a meeting Tuesday night. The club will also sponsor the annual high school post-prom party May 20 at the school.

Buc Fans 'Warm Up' On 5-3 Win; Purkey Hurls Reds Into First

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bob Purkey apparently wasn't listening when Fred Hutchinson, the Cincinnati manager, declared at the season's start that the team's fate this year was in the hands of the young pitchers.

The veteran right-hander, who will be 31 in July, pitched his second straight victory Tuesday night, a 9-1 triumph over San Francisco, and boosted the Reds into first place in the National League.

It was Cincinnati's fourth success in six starts and Purkeys' second complete game. The rest of the staff, which includes Jim O'Toole, Jay Hook, Jim Maloney and Joey Jay, all in their early 20s, have only one complete game among them.

The Reds own a half game lead over the St. Louis Cards, Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates, all tied for second. Los Angeles dropped

Dodgers Top Cards, 5-4

St. Louis out of a first-place tie with a 5-4 night victory over the Cards and Pittsburgh moved up by beating the Chicago Cubs 5-3 in the only game played in daylight. Rain washed out the Milwaukee-Philadelphia game with the Braves leading 3-1 at the end of an inning and a half.

Purkey, Cincinnati's leading pitcher last season with a 17-11 record, permitted the Giants only six hits and lost his bid for a shutout when Willie Mays led off the last of the seventh with his second home run of the season.

Wally Post, Gene Freese and Gordon Coleman led a 10-hit attack on starter Billy Loes and two relievers. Post got a double and two singles, Freese drove in three runs with a pair of singles and Coleman clouted a three-run homer, his second of the campaign.

Home runs by Frank Howard, Wally Moon and Johnny Roseboro accounted for the first four Dodger runs but the last and winning tally, in the sixth, was unearned. Pitcher Roger Craig, who went 6 2-3 innings and got the victory, opened the sixth with a single and moved to third when Bill White threw wild after fielding Maury Wills' sacrifice bunt. An infield out scored Craig.

Ken Boyer drove in two Cardinal runs with a pair of home runs. Stan Musial batted in the other two. Rookie left-hander Ron Perranoski preserved Craig's first triumph of the season, disposing of White with two out and the bases full in the eighth.

Perranoski retired the side in order in the ninth, fanning Boyer and Daryl Spencer, who drove in five runs on Monday. Al Cicotte, Card starter, was charged with his second loss.

The Pirates scored twice in the seventh to snap a 3-3 tie against the Cubs. Dick Stuart, who had driven in a run in the fifth with a triple, knocked in what proved to be the winning run with a single. A squeeze bunt furnished the extra run. Southpaw Vinegar Bend Mizell, with the help of Elroy Face, was credited with the victory as Pittsburgh opened its home season before 30,781 at Forbes Field.

Indians Try For Opener At Stadium

CLEVELAND (AP)— Cleveland Indian officials expected 35,000 spectators today for the team's home opener.

Tuesday's scheduled game was called off several hours before game time because the Weather Bureau predicted there would be more rain on the already soggy grounds at Municipal Stadium.

The sun chased the rain clouds but didn't raise the temperature very much.

The Weather Bureau said today's temperature should hit 56. This was to have been an open day on the schedule.

Jim Perry, who tamed the Tigers in the season opener last week, will be pitching for the Indians, and Jim Bunning will be on the mound for Detroit.

Aside from the pitcher, Cleveland manager Jimmie Dykes' lineup will be the same as it has been for the first four games of the season. Dykes is a proponent of the set lineup. He has picked the eight men he feels are best and he sticks with them.

'Twins' Make AL Foes See Double; Tops Boston, 3-2

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's too early to call Washington's move to Minnesota another "Milwaukee miracle". A comparison, however, with Boston's move to Wisconsin in 1953 is interesting.

The transplanted Senators, now the Twins, are faring much better than the Braves did at a corresponding date eight years ago.

No matter how they fare in Boston today, the transplanted Twins must go home to Minnesota Thursday with a winning record. In beating the Red Sox Tuesday 3-2, the Twins boosted their record to five victories in six starts and increased their first-place lead in the American League to a full game over the idle Cleveland Indians.

Rain, snow and cold weather wiped out the rest of the AL schedule.

The National League was able to get in three of its four games. Cincinnati took over first place, defeating the Giants in San Francisco 9-1. The Dodgers knocked St. Louis out of its first-place tie, shading the Cardinals 5-4 in Los Angeles. Pittsburgh opened its home season defeating the Chicago Cubs 5-3. Rain washed out the game in Philadelphia with Milwaukee leading 3-1 after an inning and a half.

Perhaps the most encouraging thing about the Twins is that each day brings a different player in a starring role. Four shared that role Tuesday, including a couple of pitchers not named Camilo Pascual or Pedro Ramos.

The pitchers who brought a gleam of joy to Manager Cookie Lavagetto's eyes were Jim Kaat, a 22-year-old southpaw making his first start of the season, and Bill Pelis, a rookie left-hander, only recently placed on the roster.

Kaat held the Red Sox to one hit until the eighth as his mates staked him to a 3-0 lead against right-hander Billy Muffett. When he weakened in the eighth, Cookie brought in Pleis, who squelched a Boston uprising and went on to hurl 1 2-3 innings of hitless ball.

Outfielders Jim Lemon and Lennie Green furnished the main batting support, getting six hits between them.

Three Contests Tonight Start Ball Rolling In Annual Junior Tourney

Six teams will answer the starting whistle tonight as the 14th annual Junior Basketball Tournament gets underway at Memorial Auditorium.

Top-flight talent from a three-state area will appear in the event tonight through Saturday for a shot at the crown held by a team that won't be around to defend its title.

The classy field includes at least two former champions — Gengarallas of Midland (1957) and Marland Heights Drugs (Weirton) which earned the title in 1958.

Opening the action at 7 will be Riverview Florists, with a collection of stars from Cleveland and Youngstown in the fold, against Buck's Confectionery of New Cumberland.

The second game an hour later will pit Spinetti Department Store of Tiltonsville, a "dark horse choice," against Village Green. The latter squad includes Midland High cagers coached by Bub Zak.

The department store squad from Tiltonsville lists big Frank Vostatek of Yorkville High School, plus Tony Williams, Melvin Coleman and Robert Simpson.

Meeting in the third game at 9 will be ELGGA of East Liverpool, listing area high school players, coached by Dale Wilson, against Sevy's Drugs (Youngstown area performers.)

Awaiting action the following night are Russell's Dairy of Wellsville, Marland Heights Drugs of Weirton, Uncle's Pete's of Wellsville and powerful Gengarallas.

Coach Jerry Russell will send Russell's Dairy against the winner of the Spinetti-Village Green winner Thursday night at 7. The winner of tonight's ELGGA-Sevy's game opposes Marland Heights Drugs Thursday at 8 p. m.

Gengarallas, flashing All - Ohio Ken Cunningham and teammates Ken Miller and Perry Hurst, goes against Uncle Pete's of Wellsville Thursday night at 9.

Gengarallas appears the lower-bracket favorite with plenty of height in Bob Ashton, 6-8, of Carnegie, Carl Anderson, 6-1, of Midland, and a pair from Uniontown to blend with the ability of the Potter performers.

The semi-finals are scheduled Friday night and the championship and consolation rounds Saturday night.

Admission for the tournament tonight and Thursday is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Admission for the semi-finals Friday and the finals Saturday will be $1 for adults and 25 cents for students.

A host of trophies will be awarded at the conclusion of the tourney by Russell Hall, president of the Blue and White Club which is sponsor of the annual tourney.

All games will be played under standard Ohio regulations. There will be no "sandwiched" games in the tourney, W. Edward Adkins, director, emphasized. The clock will be stopped as in regular varsity or reserve season games.

Wishes To Continue In Coaching

Sims Submits Resignation As Stanton Football Coach

Fred Sims, varsity football coach at Stanton Local High School for the past three years, confirmed today reports that he has submitted a formal resignation to the Board of Education.

Sims' three-year contract terminates this year and he said in a formal letter of resignation that he didn't wish to be considered for re-appointment to the post at the Irondale school.

The surprise resignation comes on the heels of his best season in three at the Jefferson County school. Sims leaves with an overall record of 12 victories and 14 defeats.

Last year's squad posted a 6-4 season record. In his first year in Irondale, Sims' young club won two and lost six in 1958, followed by a 4-4 mark in 1959.

A 25-year-old native of Columbus, Sims said he wishes to continue in the coaching field, preferably at a larger school. "Though manpower has been a problem, I've enjoyed working with such a good group of boys," the Ohio Wesleyan University graduate declared.

During his tenure, his varsity roster dipped to as low as 21 performers. The Irons posted a winning season last year and have a wealthy supply of returning regulars to greet the next coach, including a strong backfield in quarterback Bob Mills, fullback Kent Cline, and halfbacks Bob Perkins, Stan Wickham and John Pierson.

Chuck Allen, Tom Carpenter and Curt Rose head an experienced crop of returning linemen into next season.

Sims was appointed to the $500 a year post in 1958 as successor to Len Batcha who moved on to Leetonia. Sims also served as reserve basketball coach at a salary of $300.

He teaches boys and girls physical education, health, biology and general science at the Irondale school.

The post there is considered good opportunity even though the school's manpower supply isn't exceptionally strong. The Stanton Local voters approved a $1,597,000 bond issue last year for construction of a new modernistic high school plant in Hammondsville. The school will be one of the finest in Eastern Ohio.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

George Zepernick, former owner of what is now called the Zepernick area, retained five acres of land with the house and barn, after selling the other 224 acres to the Division of Wildlife, including the 35-acre lake.

Looking out the window of his living room, he noticed a large bird hover over the water, then make a crash-dive into the lake.

It came up with a sizable fish in its talons and flew off across the highway to a tall, dead elm tree. The fish wriggled free and dropped to the ground. The bird flew away. Out of curiosity, George walked over to see what kind of fish the osprey had captured. Osprey's are sometimes called "fish-hawks".

The fish was still alive and flipping when George got there, and it proved to be a sizable bass. All he had to do was scale it, dress it out, followed by a fish dinner. If you ask me, that's fisherman's luck without even wetting a line.

WITH THE exception of a few creek suckers and an occasional bullhead catfish, fishing hasn't amounted to anything so far this season.

Too much rain and high water; also the delayed March weather persists in April, with some snowing and plenty of blowing. The weekends have offered anything but fishing weather, with the exception of last Saturday when part of the day was warm with sunshine.

Even so the water temperature remained at a cold 42 degrees. The fish have not moved in on the feed beds near the shore line.

AGAIN, THIS year, I will be banding doves. The small leg bands are placed on the young squabs before they are 10 days old.

It could be they will nest in your yard. They prefer conifers. However, they also will nest in shrubbery or most any kind of a tree, like an apple tree, etc. I would appreciate people notifying me when a nest is spotted.

The purpose of this banding operation is to study their migration. Doves banded in Ohio have been shot and reported in the extreme southern states.

Ohio is one of the few states where doves are classified as song birds and are protected by Ohio laws. Most states have an open season on doves, including neighboring Pennsylvania.

I have received a few calls regarding using a boat and motor in Pymatuming.

All you need is an Ohio boat and motor license and you can fish all over Pymatuming so long as you keep off the Pennsylvania shore and do not land on any of the islands in the lake. Naturally, you must have a fishing license also.

Bout Goes 15-Round Distance

Joe Brown Outpoints Foe In 10th Defense Of Title

By RONALD THOMSON

LONDON (AP) — Have crown, will travel, was lightweight champion Joe Brown's pledge today after whipping Dave Charnley in his record 10th title defense.

"I am ready to travel anywhere in the world to defend my crown," said the 35-year-old American with the elegant touch, who outpointed the British and European champion in 15 bristling rounds before 18,000 at London's Earls Court Stadium Tuesday night.

Even two sets of swollen knuckles and the actions of spectators who jeered the decision couldn't dampen the spirits of the Baton Rouge, La., Negro, who may pocket as much as $50,000 from the bout.

He'll go anywhere to fight, he said, and that might mean the Philippines, where he has an offer to defend against either Flash Elorde or Bert Somodio.

The decision touched off an outburst of booing by many in the hometown crowd. Brawling broke out in some parts of the hall. A bottle conked one fan on the head. Police escorted referee Tommy Little, the sole official, from the ring through a line of jeering fans.

Brown shrugged off the demonstration.

"Man, you get to expect this kind of thing when you're fighting away from home," he said. "After all, this isn't Houston."

Most observers agreed that Brown had all the class and deserved the decision after leaving the blood-soaked Charnley with nothing but his fighting heart.

Brown, who stopped Charnley on cuts in five rounds in their first title bout in Houston 16 months ago, opened a cut on the bridge of the Briton's nose in the first round that bled freely the rest of the way. He fought back gamely in the last four rounds but Brown stayed in control.

Palmer, Player Clash In Houston Golf Event

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A 3-under-par 277 would be a good bet for the winning score in the $40,000 Houston Classic Golf Tournament.

Seven of the 14 previous titlists in the tournament that begins Thursday at Memorial Park have collected top money with 277s.

Robbie Williams, pro at the 7,122-yard municipal course, is among those picking a 277 to win, even though the old par 36-36—72 has been cut this year to 35-35—70.

Williams also says next Sunday's winner of the $7,000 in top money probably will be Gary Player or Arnold Palmer, stars of the recent Masters tournament.

Palmer, the 1957 winner with a 279, has been installed as a 7-2 pre-tournament favorite. Player, who tied for fourth a year ago at 284, follows at 5-1.

Other odds: Ken Venturi and Billy Casper, 8-1; Ted Kroll, Dow Finsterwald, and Doug Sanders, 10-1; Bill Collins, the defending champion, Jack Burke Jr, Don January, Tommy Bolt and Mike Souchak, 12-1.

Dave Marr of Sun City, Ariz., shot a 5-under-par 65 at Memorial in the Porky Oliver pro-amateur Tuesday. All proceeds from the event went to Oliver, who has cancer.

Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors paced National Basketball Association scoring last season with an average of 38.3 points in 79 games.

Duke Snider Is Sidelined With Fracture

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Duke Snider will be out for a month with the first broken bone of his career, and the Dodgers are indignantly suggesting it might not have been an accident that disabled him.

Snider suffered a cracked bone above his right elbow Monday night when he was hit by a pitch from St. Louis right-hander Bob Gibson — just two innings after Snider tagged Gibson for a two-run homer.

Gibson denied any intent to hurt the veteran outfielder. But Dodger General Manager Buzzie Bavasi said in a telegram to National League President Warren Giles:

"For your information, Snider was hit with the first pitch thrown to him after he hit a home run. It looks as though the bean ball rule is only working against Dodger pitchers."

Dodger right-hander Stan Williams had just been fined $50 for throwing a pitch that sailed over the head of Pittsburgh second baseman Bill Mazeroski last Sunday.

Gibson said Snider knocked an outside pitch over the left-field screen in the third inning, so he decided to pitch him inside the next time he came up.

Russian Trip By U.S. Team Is Postponed

NEW YORK (AP)—Stopped before they could score a point, two talent-laden AAU basketball teams scheduled to leave for a three-week exhibition tour of Russia awaited word today on prospects for making the postponed trip.

Post 121 League Sets Bowling Fete Monday

The annual bowling banquet for the American Legion Post 121 League will be held Monday at 6:30 at Maggie's Restaurant on Dresden Ave., Jim Morris, league secretary, announced.

The 31-member group, headed by two-time All-America Jerry Lucas of Ohio State, was notified Tuesday two hours before scheduled departure for the Soviet Union that the tour had been indefinitely postponed due to the outbreak of anti-American disturbances in Moscow.

The announcement of the trip's delay was made by Dan Ferris of the Amateur Athletic Union. He said he had been advised by the State Department "that the USSR Basketball Federation had requested a delay of a few days" because of the disturbances over the rebels' invasion of Fidel Castro's Cuba.

Ferris said the AAU group would remain in New York pending further word from Moscow.

Conerly At 40 Is Ready For 14th Grid Campaign

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Charley Conerly, a gray-haired scrapper who has fought off a host of youthful challengers in the last several years, is ready for round 14 as the No. 1 quarterback of the New York Giants.

The dean of active National Football League players—he will be 40 two days after the season opens—ended rumors about his retirement Tuesday by signing for his 14th year of pro grid action with the Giants.

Terms of the one-year contract were not disclosed by President Jack Mara, who would only say Conerly was one of the NFL's highest-salaried stars. It is estimated the former University of Mississippi standout will receive $25,000 to $30,000.

As is his usual practice, Conerly told Mara as he agreed to terms: "I guess this will be my last time."

As is his usual practice, Mara smiled and replied: "Yes, Charlie."

Conerly's career is equalled in longevity among active NFL players only by Green Bay's Emlen Tunnell, a former Giant teammate.

Only two players—Washington quarterback Sammy Baugh and Giants center Mel Hein had longer careers. Baugh played for 16 years, Hein for 15.

In 13 seasons, Conerly has passed for 166 touchdowns and completed 1,374 aerials for 18,854 yards—over 10 miles.

Chess Players Hold Elimination Contest

An elimination contest was held when the Fraternal Order of Chessmen met Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall in Newell. There were 12 entries.

Three rounds were completed and the fourth was postponed to April 27 when Fred Lanam will play Tom Frederick for the championship.

Guests were Logan Six, Kenny Arnott, Roy Green and Charles Lawson.

Sixteen attended the meeting.

The next meeting is Tuesday at the hall when the Board of Directors will also meet.

Clarence Wilson is president.

FIGHT RESULTS

London—Joe Brown, 134, Baton Rouge, La., outpointed Dave Charnley, 134½, England, 15. (Brown retained world lightweight title).

Omaha — Alejandro Lavorante, 206, Des Moines, Iowa, stopped Wayne Womochil, 194, Omaha, 2.

Buenos Aires — Eder Jofre, 123½, Argentina, knocked out Sugar Ray, 120½, Dutch Guiana, 2. (non-title).

Honolulu — Baby Brown, 124, Manila, outpointed Ray Salazar, 120¾, Los Angeles, 10.

'If Pitching Holds Up' Reds Are In Business

By HARRY JUPITER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "If our pitching holds up, we're in business," says Fred Hutchinson, manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Right-hander Bob Purkey turned in a six-hitter against the San Francisco Giants Tuesday night and his slugging teammates made the rest of it look like child's play.

The Reds slammed eight hits in the first three innings, enough for all of their runs in a 9-1 breeze.

The Cincinnati victory, coupled with the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-4 win over St. Louis, catapulted the Reds back into first place in the National League.

Hutchinson, aware that his Reds weren't picked as pennant contenders, shrugs off the prognosticators.

"Anybody can be an expert in April," he said. "Our future depends on our young pitchers—kids like Joe Jay, Jay Hook and Jim O'Toole. If they do a good job, we're gonna be a good ball club.

"It's a big 'if' but it's not beyond our capabilities."

As for Purkey, he had only one rough inning in chalking up his second straight victory. That came in the seventh when Willie Mays socked his second home run of the year for the Giants' only run.

Purkey then loaded the bases on walks but got pinch hitter Jim Marshall on a bouncer to end the frame.

The Reds bombed out Giant starter Billy Loes with frightening dispatch. Doubles by Ed Kasko and Wally Post, a hit batsman and Gene Freese' two-run single accounted for three first - inning runs.

Three straight singles in the third—by Frank Robinson, Post and Freese — chased Loes and brought in Eddie Fisher.

Gordy Coleman greeted Fisher with a three-run homer and that was that. The Reds added two more in the inning on the shaken Giant defense.

Post got three hits, boosting his batting average to .421. Kasko's two hits brought him to an even .400.

Hutchinson shrugged: "Hitting we got."

Broad Jump Champ Heads Kansas Field

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Ralph Boston, Olympic champion and world record holder in the broad jump, heads a classy corps of field stars for the 36th Kansas Relays Friday and Saturday.

Boston, a lean Negro athlete from Tennessee A&I State, beat the oldest record in the world books — Jesse Owens' 26-8¼ in 1935—with a leap of 26-11¼ in a pre-Olympic meet in California last August. He took out Owens' 1936 Olympic mark at 26-7⅝ in the world games.

The entry of Boston and four other Tennessee A&I thinclads was announced Saturday by Bill Easton, KU track coach and relays director. Boston is entered in the high jump, high hurdles and 400 and 880 relays.

Boston will go after the relays' broad jump record of 25-5¼ in preliminaries and finals of that event Friday.

Tightest competition in history of the relays is expected in the shot putt and discus although both records—59-7⅞ and 178-1—are expected to hold fast.

Mike Lindsay, defending champion in the shot, has a putt of 58-10¾ this spring. But he will have to beat John Fry (58-10½) and Buddy Tyner of Baylor and Jim Allison of Texas. Both Tyner and Allison are 56-footers.

Al Holcomb of Howard Payne, who won the Texas Relays at 169-3½, heads the discus entries. The other good throws include Fry (167-10½), Russ Seitzinger, Hardin Simmons (164-3); Cloyd Webb, Iowa (160-7½); Lindsay (168-5), and Walt Myers, Colorado (162).

Dick Stuart of the Pittsburgh Pirates paced National League first basemen in errors last season with 14.

U.S. Anti-Sub Capability Very Good, Navy Claims

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Radio-controlled drone helipcoters armed with homing torpedoes. Search devices that can bounce a sub-seeking signal off the ocean floor. Missiles able to kill nuclear submarines at ranges up to about eight miles.

These are a few of the detection instruments and weapons, some with a lethal atomic punch which the Navy says it can use —or soon will have ready—if called on to repel the Communist world's 450-submarine force.

Rear Adm. Lloyd M. Mustin, head man in Navy Antisubmarine Warfare (ASW), claims U. S. antisub capability is very good. He says there are some new "dramatic" means, still cloaked in secrecy.

The admiral contends "the quality of this equipment is more than adequate" to deal with the greatly increased problem that will develop when the Soviets add a sizable number of nuclear craft to their already potent sub fleet powered by conventional fuels.

To prepare for that day, U. S. Antisubmarine Warfare teams have been testing hunt-and-kill techniques against U. S. atomic subs.

As Mustin views it, the pressing need is to acquire a new ASW tools in quantity—"there is no substitute for numbers in antisubmarine warfare," he argues.

The Navy has an active fleet of 817 ships—the great bulk of them remaining from World War II—and more than 6,900 planes. Forty-five per cent of the ships and 14 per cent of the planes are primarily devoted to antisubmarine tasks.

The control ship of a hunter-killer task force is a carrier fitted with complicated electronic equipment enabling the commander to coordinate and direct the attack. The United States has 9 ASW carriers and 14 attack carriers that can be used for operations against subs.

Joining in the hunt are twin-engine carrier-borne tracker planes which can search thousands of square miles of open sea, watching for telltale signs of a snorkel poking above the waves or dropping sonar buoys to detect the sounds of subs running submerged.

Also brought into play are helicopters, often operating in teams of two. Navy experts say one chopper can locate a lurking sub by means of a sonar ball dipped through sound-distorting temperature variations in the water, while the other moves in with a depth charge or torpedo.

The real work horses are high-speed destroyers with long-range sonar and a variety of torpedoes and depth charges, some rocket-fired for greater range.

The Navy has high hopes for a new turbine-powered drone helicopter called Dash (for destroyer antisub helicopter). This small chopper can be sent out after a fix is obtained on a sub and ordered by radio to drop a pattern of torpedoes on the quarry. It can carry 1,000 pounds of payload. The first of this model are due to fly this summer.

Then there is ASROC, which is a four-part system including underwater sonar, an electronic fire control computer, an eight-missile launcher and the solid-fuel missiles themselves.

A total of 150 ships is due to be armed with ASROC systems within the next few years.

Another powerful weapon, still in development, is the SUBROC, a guided missile designed to be fired from torpedo tubes of a submerged submarine, or from the surface. It travels through the air to re-enter the water for the kill.

Now in use is the "Betty," an airborne atomic depth charge with a kill potential up to several miles from the point of detonation. The Navy says it virtually can eliminate wolf pack concentrations of submarines, like those used by the Germans in World War II.

50 At Father-Son Banquet Of Georgetown Area Church

Some 58 attended the "father and son" banquet of the Bethel Methodist Church of near Georgetown Friday evening at the Hookstown Grange Hall.

Mrs. Harold Ivell and Mrs. Lloyd Beal were in charge. Eugene Beal, Burley Roberts and Bruce Hobbs were in charge of the program, which included group singing accompanied by Mrs. Jack Johnson, pianist.

Speakers were the Rev. Herbert Bish, pastor, and Roberts. A highlight was the recognition of four generations of the Beal family. Present were Charles Beal, Lloyd Beal, Eugene Beal and Daryl Beal.

Glenn Brady of Georgetown R. D. 1 received two prizes, one as the oldest guest, 77, and the other for being the oldest guest with a son present. His son is Loy Brady of Paris, Pa.

Daryl Beal, 8-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Beal, won a prize as the youngest guest.

The Stitch and Chatter Club was to meet today at the home of Mrs. Bill Culley of R.D. 1.

The Quilters Circle of the Methodist Church will hold its all-day meeting and luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. Glenn Brady of R. D. 1.

Mrs. Charles A. Finley, Mr. and Mrs. John Finley and son, John, and daughter, Jane, attended the confirmation Sunday of Mrs. Finley's grandson, William Warren Hall, at the Trinity Episcopal Church in Beaver. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall of Beaver. The confirmation was by Suffragan Bishop William Thomas of the Pittsburgh Diocese. A family dinner for 14 followed at the Hall home.

Miss Mary Lee Hobbs, a student at Pennsylvania State University, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hobbs, of R. D. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Stewart and son, Harold, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart of St. Clairsville Sunday. George Stewart is ill at his home there.

Mrs. Harold Stewart and daughter, Susan Jane, visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mille of Mingo Junction, over the weekend.

Guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. John Nash were Mr. and Mrs. William Foster and son, John Henry, of Beaver.

Castro Reign Seen Nearing End In Cuba

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press News Analyst

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Fidel Castro's days seem numbered as the ruler of Cuba, regardless of the success or failure of invading rebel forces.

If the invasion achieves one of its major objectives—perhaps the most important of all—it will spark a wave of desertions from Castro's forces. This could mean that Cuba might be spared a long fratricidal civil war.

Cuban sources in Miami admit their success may hang on this factor more than any other. For then, in this respect, the invasion has been a calculated gamble.

Should the number of defections from the ranks of Castro's supporters be far less than the rebels anticipate, the invasion could fail.

But this would not necessarily save Fidel himself. He is rapidly becoming a liability to the Communists who now dominate the island, and it is far from improbably that the Communists themselves would feel it expedient to devise some means of getting rid of him.

Castro's loud blundering, which in two years has helped bring the island's economy to confused wreckage, has gotten in the way of the Communists. If the Communists are noted for anything, it is for their knack of organizing the power of a country and nailing it down.

Even if the invasion succeeds, the Russians may find themselves able to live with it. A counter-revolution in Cuba would give them an issue with which to belabor the United States for a long time to come. It could also provide sparks for harassing violence against other Latin American governments. The tone of Moscow's reactions to the invasion news hardly indicated an eagerness to risk World War III to save Fidel.

But the invasion would have a tough time succeeding without the defections upon which the rebels are banking so heavily. They expect these desertions from the ranks of career men in the army, navy and air force. Yet it will require more than that.

Much depends upon how solid is Fidel's hold upon the militia. That is made up of ordinary people, dragooned into long hours of marching, drilling and training on their own time. Many resented it, and many may be of a mind to defect. But the militia also has a large number of fanatical young men and women who enjoy playing with guns and shaking their fists at the Yankees.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. Is there something I can put on my window screens to help keep my house free of flies during the summer months?

A. One method that has been found highly effective is to paint the screens with a solution consisting of three fluid ounces of quassia extract, one ounce of sugar, and 30 grams of gum a rabic. This solution, which is applied with a brush, is deadly to flies, which it attracts, but is harmless to humans and animals.

Q. How can I avoid the disagreeable odor from rendering fat?

A. By placing the kettle containing the fat in your oven. Start the fat on the top of the stove, and when heated through, place in a moderate oven until it is finished.

Q. What is the "trick" in ironing bias-cut garments?

A. To iron them with the "grain" of the fabric, rather than from neck to hem. This will prevent their sagging.

A Girl's-Eye-View About Marlon Brando

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Here's a girl's-eye-view of Marlon Brando:

"Dating Marlon was very interesting but he is such a complex person that I think I would end up more confused than enlightened."

That comes from Barbara Luna, the pretty Eurasian actress who used to date him. But she went on:

"But he did help me a lot. When I first met Marlon I was so full of 'I don't knows.' I graduated from high school at 15 and I never had much education after that. I never claimed to be an intellectual. He brought a lot of subjects into my life that I had never discussed before, like politics and religion, even wrestling. I learned a lot from him, but it almost gave me an inferiority complex."

Costly Demonstration

ADRIAN, Mich. (AP) — A fire-fighting demonstration staged by the Lenawee County Firemen's Association was a success, but it cost them $1,700. Included among combustibles used in the demonstration were valuable wooden dies collected as scrap wood from the Stearns Mfg. Co., which sued for damages. A jury decided in favor of the company.

Bullet Which Struck Heart Goes To Knee

POWELL, Wyo. (AP) — A .22 caliber bullet which struck 17-year old Bruce Lamb while rabbit hunting apparently was pumped by his heart into an artery and moved through the blood stream all the way to his knee.

Dr. Ray Christensen said the bullet struck a rib, pierced the boy's left lung, lodged in his heart and was then pumped into an artery.

Christensen said he first thought the bullet had disintegrated, but after taking a series of X-rays nearly 24 hours after the accident found the slug in the back of Lamb's left knee. The boy recovered.

The Japanese have coined a new word to describe motorcyclists. It is kaminariyoku, "thunder breed."

Believe It Or Not: Boat And Car Crash

FAST TEMPLETON, Mass. —Very few boats are involved in crashes with automobiles, but George Arsenault's boat was.

His brand new boat never had a chance to hit the water before it was wrecked on the highway by a car being navigated by an unlicensed boy of 15 driving his grandfather's car without authority.

Arsenault said he was driving home from his boat dealer, towing the boat on a trailer, when the crash occurred.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

More Commercials Squeezed Into TV Break

Nobody ever thought we would see the day when an ad man complained because there was too much advertising on TV. It happened, though.

Hal Humphrey

An ad man is pleading for fast, fast, fast relief.

With all the bravado of a Don Quixote, the president of the Young & Rubicam ad agency has told the president of a TV network that the latter is loading up his airwaves with too many commercials.

This doesn't necessarily call for harassed TV viewers to begin dancing in the streets. We will continue to hear fatuous announcers inform us that we are now to have "a word from last week's sponsor for next week's show."

STILL, IT'S rather comforting to know that the conspirators against us are beginning to fight among themselves. If it does nothing but postpone the day when the commercials get to be 26 minutes long and the programs only four minutes, this is something.

As you may or may not know, the current debate is over the amount of time devoted to commercials during what is called the "station break." That is usually the time between the end of one program and the start of another.

In the early days of TV, a network allowed its affiliated stations only 15 seconds for local station break time during the prime evening hours. When the battle among the three major networks for more affiliates became keener, the station breaks were increased to 30 seconds.

NOW ABC has told its affiliated stations there will be 42-second station breaks and that the network will take only 2 seconds of this to say, "This is ABC." The other 40 seconds can be sold for spot commercials to local advertisers by the affiliate.

If viewers think they are watching an awful raft of commercials in 30 seconds, just wait until they see what can be done in 40.

A good ad agency copywriter and a fast-talking announcer can, in 40 seconds, pitch you a bad breath remedy, a hair dressing that will get your girl back, a used car to pick her up in and a cemetery lot for when the whole miserable story ends.

George H. Gribbin, president of Young & Rubicam, fired a nasty telegram last week to ABC's president, Oliver Treyz, and in effect called him a traitor to the TV viewers. Of course, besides being worried about the TV viewer's welfare, ad man Gibbin was sore because ABC's Treyz was stealing this extra 12 seconds from the program time, which Young & Rubicam and other ad agencies sell to the sponsors.

QUICKER than you can say "acid stomach," prexy Treyz asked Gribbin how come he was protesting at this late date? Treyz said he notified everybody of the change on Feb. 1 and that nobody beefed then, including Young & Rubicam.

Gribbin might have been vacationing in the Bahamas at the time or just not opening mail from Oliver Treyz during the month of February. He hasn't said yet why he waited so long to complain.

That really isn't too important. What is important is that creeping commercialism in TV has crept a little further, and the first man to alert us to the fact was the president of an advertising agency.

CBS ALREADY has indicated it will have to increase its station-break commercial time to 42 seconds to compete with ABC. NBC hadn't said anything at this writing, but the bookmakers along Madison Ave. are giving 10-1 that NBC will get into line before the summer reruns begin.

There may be a viewer reaction to all of this which neither the networks nor the ad agencies and sponsors have considered. It's just possible that most of us will welcome this extra 12 seconds added to the station breaks.

Thirty seconds isn't always enough time to get to the kitchen or the bathroom and back —especially if one lives in a split-level house. Another 12 seconds may be just the difference between walking instead of running for that can of beer.

-:-

IT NOW LOOKS as if Tennessee Ernie Ford has won his battle to leave the weekly TV grind next fall.

Despite all sorts of pressure from his agent, the sponsor and NBC, Ernie is remaining adamant. NBC reluctantly has scheduled another show in Ernie's time spot for next season.

17 Pinball Machines Confiscated In Raids

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati police covered 40 cafes in a two-hour series of raids on pinball machines Tuesday, but confiscated only 17 of the devices found with a federal $250 gambling tax permit attached to them.

The raids were based on Internal Revenue Service records of those who bought the stamps. Police said attaching the stamp makes the machines illegal under city law, but that some machines had been changed and others did not bear the gambling tax stamp.

Fire Levels Church

EATON, Ohio (AP)—The Brick Methodist Church of nearby Lewisburg, built in 1870, was destroyed by fire Tuesday, but firefighters saved the frame parsonage next door. A church official said $30,000 of the $75,000 loss was covered by insurance.

Event To Be May 6

Jaycees Discuss Plans For Steel Salute Parade

Plans for presenting a parade for the Chamber of Commerce as part of its steel promotion were outlined at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at the Travelers Hotel.

The parade will be presented Saturday, May 6, at 6 p. m. The theme is "Salute to Steel." Over 40 units have been invited to participate. Thirty - five new cars also will be in the lineup.

Dick Chadwick is parade chairman. The Chamber is paying the expenses while the Jaycees are in charge of the arrangements.

Thirty - four attended the dinner meeting. Dave Humphrey of MacDonald, District 5 vice president, was a guest. He reviewed the background of candidates for state officers and reported that a proposed new state Junior Chamber of Commerce office building probably will be constructed at Marion. Humphrey is a member of the state committee selecting a site.

Frank Dawson gave the invocation. Reports were heard on the fruit cake sale, 1961 dues, the Home Show, Easter sunrise service, coverdish dinner and square dance and the investment classes.

William Webber, chairman, reported on the membership drive. Robert Brooks, chairman, announced the post-prom party following the annual Junior - Senior dance at the Memorial Auditorium will be held at Westgate School. The dance is May 12.

Jack Chapman, chairman, announced the annual Teen-age Road-E-O driving contest will be held April 30 at the Westgate parking lot. The rain date is May 7. He said due to the large number of entries, a double runoff probably will be held.

Dan Dailey announced an auto safety check will be conducted at three locations Saturday, May 6. The rain date is May 13.

Paul Zehnder announced the annual inaugural ball will be May 20 at the Country Club.

Officers will be elected Monday, May 8, at the hotel.

Ed Butcher, president of the Salem Jaycees, and two other members of the chapter were present. Butcher announced the District 5 meeting will be held tonight at Salem. Candidates for state offices will be present.

Other guests included Jack Conley and Herman Langer. The Board of Directors will meet May 1.

Jack Hales, program chairman, screened movies of the World Series.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our son is going with a girl who is much too good for him. We are worried about her but we are afraid to interfere.

Ralph is 18. He has a fine mind but he's obstinate, secretive, irresponsible and has a bad temper. He refuses to listen to anyone who tries to help him. We've tried our clergyman, doctor, athletic coach and friends.

Ralph has had girls crazy about him since he was 15. His romances always end the same way. He uses a girl for his own pleasure than drops her.

His current steady is so lovely it's heartbreaking to know she soon will join the others. Can we warn her?—SAD PARENTS.

Dear Parents: You can't go around warning girls against your son. Your real responsibility is to get this boy straightened around so the world will be safe from him.

A girl who would "go crazy" over a young man with the qualities you describe must be pretty mixed up herself. Disturbed people often attract each other.

Make an appointment with a specialist and get some advice on how to reach a bright, hostile, maladjusted 18-year-old Don Juan. You need professional direction.

Sight Unseen

Dear Ann: I'm a widow, 52, in good health. I own my own home, a new car and have a modest income.

I've been corresponding for six months with a man I've never met. He lives 3,000 miles away and is a friend of a friend who thought we should get together.

His letters are so romantic I feel like a schoolgirl again. Last week he phoned and his voice is like Charles Boyer's. He wants me to sell my home and drive out to marry him. He said we can buy a brand new lovenest out there with the money I get from the house.

I wired my friend who knows him and asked for his advice. He said the man is "very nice" but he didn't want to be responsible for anything. Please help me, Ann. This may be my last chance for happiness.—MABEL.

Dear Mabel: A woman who would sell her home and drive 3,000 miles to marry a man she's never met has a clinker in her thinker.

Invite him to your city and arrange for him to stay with friends or in a hotel. Then, if you like what you see, take a trip out his way and meet his family, friends, clergyman, boss (and creditors).

Foolish Routine

Dear Ann: Our 16-year-old son is trying to go steady with a girl who lives in another county. It is a 30-minute drive to her house from where we live. His father thinks he should date girls who live closer by or else find his own transportation.

We're constantly driving back and forth, dropping him off and going to get him. The public transportation is poor so don't suggest it. We refuse to let him drive until he's 18. He's been screaming about this for a year so please don't mention this possibility.

Our other two sons did exactly the same thing. What's the big attraction for out-of-town girls anyway? Help!—WORN-OUT PARENTS.

Dear Worn-Out: Distance lends enchantment and you can't change that. But you can change your foolish routine.

Why encourage a 16-year-old boy to go steady by chauffeuring him? Maybe if he had to depend on "poor public transportation" he'd be going with other girls, which is what a 16-year-old boy should be doing.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Advantages Of Reading Reviewed

This is National Library Week, the fourth such annual celebration. People of all ages, in more than 5,000 communities in all 50 states, are being alerted to the importance of reading and of libraries of all kinds. The program is keyed to the theme: "For a richer, fuller life — Read!" It continues to emphasize young adult reading habits. Also special efforts are being made to stimulate public interest in school libraries and to increase participation by people in industry. Newspapers, magazines, television and radio and other media of communication will help make a "better-read, better-informed America", and encourage lifetime reading habits and public support and use of library service.

Dr. Garry Meyers

TRUE, WE and our children may learn a great deal from listening to radio and viewing television, if we listen and view selectively. Yet there can be no substitute for the printed word, no substitute for reading.

When we hear or view something on the air which strikes us as worth remembering or thinking about reflectively, we can't pause or go back to what came before. Sometimes, indeed, we write to the broadcasting station for a printed copy in order to clear up some points which came too fast, and to dwell on them or others long enough to comprehend their full meaning.

When we read, we can choose our own speed; we can go back at any time "to weigh and consider". We can reread any portion we like. Besides, we can go back to any part of the story, article or book at future times. We can think with more precision.

OF COURSE IT often takes more effort to read than just to look and listen, one of the reasons many persons listen so much and read so little.

Wishing to cultivate good lifetime reading habits in our children, we parents can do much by being constant readers ourselves at home, aiming by example and precept to cultivate a reading family.

We can keep good reading materials on hand for our children. We can buy some good books and magazines and we can go with our children to the nearest library to borrow more of them.

We can keep reading aloud to the tot and to older children and to one another in the family. We can find ways to help our school-age children become good readers, for the better readers they are, the more they will read for pleasure.

My bulletins, "Why Read to Baby and Young Child" and "Home Helps for Poor Readers, I and II", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Institute Report Presented At WCTU Meeting At Lisbon

Mrs. Homer Bell, president, gave a report on the recent institute when the Lisbon WCTU met Monday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McCormick. The institute was held at the Damascus Friends Church with several members attending.

After prayer by each member, a report by the secretary and a roll call followed. Salutes were given the American, Christian and temperance flags.

Mrs. Herbert Johnson led devotions, using Prov. 22:1-6. Her theme was "Growing Character."

Mrs. McCormick was in charge of the program and previewed Chapter 12 of the book, "What Alcohol Is and What It Does." Mrs. Bell presided for business and plans were made to visit the County Home July 16 and for a day youth camp during the summer.

Refreshments Served

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Bell.

Next meeting is May 16 with Mrs. Carl Williams of the Lisbon-Columbiana Rd.

The Christian Women's Fellowship Guild met at The First Christian Church Monday evening with Miss Meretta Ikirt, president, presiding.

Mrs. Harold Adams led devotions and Mrs. Paul Eells gave a talk on the history of the CWF.

Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Willis Coleman.

At the next meeting May 15, pictures will be shown with a talk on "Missions In Mexico."

Church Circle Meets

The Inez Marsden Circle of the First Methodist Church met Monday night with Mrs. Don Morris of Jerome St.

Mrs. Peter Cibila, president, was in charge of business. Officers were elected, including Mrs. Kenneth Everett, president; Mrs. Ted Greener, vice president; Miss Jetty Liggitt, secretary; Mrs. Morris, treasurer, and Mrs. Don Myers, secretary of the nursery.

Miss Liggitt was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. Pat Klein, who gave a hair-styling demonstration and beauty tips with Mrs. Blair Lewis the model.

The group will visit the Methodist Home for the Aged at Elyria May 14, following church service, and also planned a picnic in June.

"Broadway Plays" was the program topic presented by Mrs. George Nace Jr. when the Monday Club met with Mrs. W. A. Frew of E. Lincoln Way.

Mrs. Marie Parry, president, presided for brief business. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The meeting May 1 will be with Mrs. George Nace Jr. of N. Park Pl. Miss Ruth Maple will have the program.

Churchhill Club Meets

Mrs. Janet Burbick of Guilford was hostess to the Churchhill Cackle Club Monday night.

Prizes at 500 were won by Mrs. Bruce Sullivan and Mrs. Ernest Reiseinger, a guest. Mrs. Katherine Bush won a special prize. Lunch was served.

Mrs. Sullivan of E. Chestnut St. will entertain May 15.

Mrs. Frank Henry and Mrs. Byron Albright were in charge of the social meeting of Coterie Monday night at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Mugridge of N. Market St. There were quizzes and games.

Brief business was conducted by the president, Miss Lucile Bennett, and the group endorsed the proposed work camp for juvenile offenders. Aid was planned for a needy family. The hostess served lunch.

Antique Program Set

The meeting May 1 will be with Mrs. Guy Frantz of W. Lincoln Way. Miss Helen Ramsey will give the program on "Antiques and Their History." Each member is to answer roll call by bringing an antique.

Mrs. Elsie Fisher of W. Lincoln Way spent Sunday with her sister, Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Lawton, of Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Finney of E. Lincoln Way have returned after spending the winter in St. Petersburg and Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Field and son of Cleveland visited over the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Maretta Weimer, of Churchhill Rd., and with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crook of W. Washington St.

1 Killed, 5 Injured In Coal Mine Blast

MORGANTOWN, W. Va. (AP)—A gas ignition killed a loading machine operator in a coal mine at nearby Osage late Tuesday and hospitalized five others with burns and undetermined injuries.

The dead miner was identified as Thomas E. Frieson, about 32, of Fairmont. The blast occurred in the Osage No. 3 mine of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., and Frieson's father reportedly died in an explosion there in the early 1940s.

The first winter weather observations were made on Mt. Washington, N. H., in 1870.

Auxiliary To Aid Kitchen Project

Plans to furnish a kitchen to be built as an addition to the Lawrenceville fire station were made at a meeting of the auxiliary of the fire department Monday night with Mrs. Laura Barmer of Lawrenceville.

Vanilla and black pepper will be sold to raise funds.

Enrolled as members were Mrs. Bernice Leaisure, Miss Thelma Leaisure, Mrs. Delores Leaisure, Mrs. Ann Leaisure and Mrs. Beatrice Nonamaker. A contest prize was won by Mrs. Ann Leaisure.

Mrs. Elaine Barmer was a guest. Lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Laura Barmer, vice president, was in charge.

Next meeting is May 1 at the fire station.

Hurt In Air Crash

DETROIT (AP)—Lt. Thomas D. Smith III of Akron, Ohio, was seriously injured in an airplane crash that killed six naval reservists at Fallon, Neve., Tuesday, the Gros Ile Naval Air Base here reported today. Six Michigan men died, two others were hurt seriously and nine men suffered minor injuries when their Navy R4D transport crashed on takeoff.

10 Pleas Judges Ask Number Hiked To 12

CINCINNATI (AP) — The 10 common pleas judges of Hamilton County want their number increased to 12, to cope with a flood of new cases accompanying increased population.

The judges agreed to ask action by the state legislature so that two more judges may take their posts by 1963, insuring that cases be heard in a reasonable time.

Beaver To Issue Absentee Ballot

BEAVER — The Beaver County Bureau of Elections will accept applications for absentee ballots through May 8, William B. Smith, director, announced.

The bureau began taking applications Monday and ballots will be either mailed or given in person. Those eligible are registered voters who expect to be out of the county due to their occupation or business during the May 16 primary election and registered voters unable to go to the polls due to an illness or infirmity.

They can not be given to voters on vacation. Those ill or infirm must present a doctor's statement.

Beginning Friday, military and veterans ballots may be requested. Any serviceman who will be 21 on or before May 17 is eligible for a military ballot whether registered or not.

Veteran's ballots are for bedridden or hospitalized veterans.

Air Crashes Reported

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Highway Patrol says five civilian airplane crashes occurred in Ohio during March, resulting in three injuries. In addition, there were two military plane accidents, resulting in one death and two injuries. The patrol says the state continues to experience an average of more than one airplane accident a week.

Feed Producers Exempted In Corn, Sorghum Program

The recently enacted 1961 feed grain program applies only to producers of corn and grain sorghum, according to chairmen of the Columbiana, Hancock and Beaver County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committees.

It does not apply to producers of other feed grains only.

In reply to inquiries as to how the program affects farmers who produce "other" feed grains — such as barley, oats or rye, Mark Hilliker, Beaver ASC chairman, explained that a farmer's participation in the 1961 feed grain program will be calculated from records of his farm's corn and grain sorghum production during the base years 1959 and 1960.

From these records, will be determined the "minimum" amount of acreage the grower must divert from such production into a soil-conserving use, and also the rate of payment applicable to the farm.

For diverting acreage under the program, the corn and grain sorghum producer will receive a special payment and will be eligible for price support on the normal production of his 1961 corn and grain sorghum acreage and also on all of his other feed grain crops — barley, oats, and rye.

Where a farmer did not produce either corn or grain sorghum in 1959 or 1960, and where he does not intend growing these crops this year, the feed grain program does not affect him at all. Such a farmer will be able to obtain price support on his "other" feed grains just as in other years — without regard to the 1961 feed grain program.

Producers of corn and grain sorghum will find it definitely to their advantage to participate in the feed grain program, Hilliker declared. Besides qualifying for price support on 1961 feed grains, the co-operator will be assured of an income from the diverted acreage regardless of drought or other production hazards, and, for most producers, the payment will return an amount greater than the net income from a normal crop on these acres. Furthermore, up to half of the estimated total payment will be made in advance if the farmer so wishes and files such a request.

The non-cooperating corn or grain sorghum producer, on the other hand, will have no price support available for any of his 1961 feed grain production, will not be assured of net income from any of his 1961 feed grain acreage, will receive only the market price for his crop — whatever that may be, and will get no part of his income from an advance payment this spring.

Farmers who are interested in the feed grain program for corn and grain sorghum are urged to contact their county ASC offices, which are at Lisbon, New Cumberland and Beaver.

Church Men Pick Delegates For Spring Rally At Jewett

Delegates to accompany the Rev. James Sanko to the United Presbyterian Men's spring rally at Jewett April 30 at 4:30 p.m. were elected at a meeting of the United Presbyterian Men Monday night at the Wellsville Riverside church.

J. Ralph Fulton and William Ferguson will report at the meeting May 15.

Thirty attended the dinner meeting. C. R. Donaldson, president, conducted business. The meal was served by the women of Class 16 with Mrs. Ann DeSellem, president, in charge.

The group voted to have the treasurer collect $1 from each member to pay the 1960-61 dues to the National Council of United Presbyterian Men in New York, to the Synod treasurer and to the Presbytery treasurer.

Reports were heard from Ferguson, secretary, and Harry Myers, treasurer. The secretary was authorized to contact Rep. J. Warren Bettis and Rep. Clarence Wetzel at Columbus, urging them to vote for the passage of House Bills 463, 464, and 586. The legislation, which would stiffen gambling laws, is pending before the House Judicial Committee. A letter also will be sent Edmund G. James, committee chairman.

Dues for the 1961-62 year were set and the price of meals established. Named to a nominating committee were E. R. Warden, J. Donald Workman and Kenneth McAdoo. The election will be at the next meeting.

The initial slate of officers presented includes Jerry Russell for president; Emmett Pelley Jr. for vice president, and Ferguson and Myers for re-election.

A color film, "Take My Life," was screened. It shows how a Christian can take an active part in all phases of society, including work, play, politics, etc.

4-H News

A report on the Northeast District Advisors 4-H Conference in Cleveland was presented by the advisor when the Liverpool Township Hilltoppers 4-H Club met Monday night with Mrs. Gertrude Pethtel of Shadyside.

Demonstrations presented included "Inserting Screws" by Roland Galeno, and "Sanding Wood" by Harvey Moore.

The next meeting is May 1 with Tom Persohn. "Something I Like to Do." will be roll call response.

Firemen Finally Gets License Plate No. 7

CHATTANOOGA (AP) — It took him two years, but Larry Myers, a city fireman, received Hamilton County license plate No. 7 for his car after spending the night in front of the courthouse before tags went on sale.

He tried the same thing in 1960, but the man ahead of him bought tags for three cars — and fouled up his system.

Commissioners Order Checks, Court Docket

LISBON — Orders for checks and a juvenile docket were let by Columbiana County commissioners Monday.

Herr Printing of Columbus was low bidder for 15,000 payroll checks at $270 and 20,000 regular checks for $149.

A criminal docket for Juvenile Court was ordered from the Dayton Blank Book Co. for $98.75.

Travel allowances were authorized for Dog Warden Russell J. Reichenbach of North Georgetown and Harold McCall, assistant, to attend the Eastern Ohio Dog Wardens Association meeting in Zanesville today.

The commissioners will meet Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

To make fine dry bread crumbs, cut off the crusts from bread that is stale but not hard. Dry the bread in a slow oven, then put through the food grinder.
